of an amateur boxer during his college days at Cornell. Stanford, and Columbia, took Robinson under his wing after seeing him perform in amateur bouts at Harlem's Rockland palace. Under Horrmann's protection, Robinson stopped worrying about eating and concentrated on winning.

However, maybe the bookies are smart—maybe they know some-thing. Perhaps they recognize in Hence, today, "Sug-a-h" Robinson shapes up as a potential cham-pion. At least Promoter Mike Jafleet, hard-hitting Robinson the youngster who can lick either Angott or Jenkins. Probably they appreciate the fact that, while "Sugcobs thinks so. If Ray beats Angott Monday night, Jacobs will throw a-h" has had but 20 professional him into the ring for a title shot at the winner of the October bout bouts, he has won A-L-L of them, between Jenkins and Angott. Ja-cobs sees in Robinson not only a and 17 by knockouts. This gives him a far higher kayo average than potentially great fighter but also either Joe Louis or Jack Dempsey. a great drawing card because he's a "crowd-pleaser." The fans like Moreover, eight of those kayoes were achieved in the first round. He's a deadly finisher. Perhaps him because he's lightning fast, because he can knock your brains out with either hand, and because the bookies saw Robinson in his last fight, when he "moidered" Pete Lello and stopped him in the he loves to fight.

Approximately 1,500,000 licensed radio sets are operating in Canada. says the department of commerce. Doubtless the bookies recall that while Robinson has had but 20 professional fights, he has been
