

Selective Service Lottery Broadcast to Highlight Air Tonight at 6 on WIBA

When the numbers are drawn tonight in the nation's second selective service lottery, radio will be on hand to report the event to the nation. In a broadcast at 6 on WIBA-WLS, Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, will speak briefly before Secretary of Navy Knox puts his hand in the capsule-filled jar. WGN will carry the broadcast at 6:15.

Dickie Monahan—you know him as "Dinky Dugan" of "Reg'lar Fellers" heard Sundays on NBC—is a theatrical veteran at seven. The tow-headed youngster has worked in vaudeville, radio and picture shorts.

East Boosts Strong Grid Candidates

CHICAGO — The east, which last year failed to place a man in the starting College All-American lineup, should be well represented on the squad this summer. This is the opinion of eastern coaches who today cast ballots in the national voting contest to determine the team which will start the eighth annual All-Star game against the Chicago Bears, National Football League champions, in Chicago's Soldiers' Field on August 28.

Members of three eastern squads — Fordham, Georgetown, and Boston college, which participated in bowl contests last New Year's day — were among the choices of the coaches. Leading players on the strong Cornell and University of Pennsylvania elevens also were listed.

Carl Snavely of Cornell university; Lou Lipe, Columbia, and Emerson W. Spiker, Nelson, new coach at Yale university, were among the easterners selecting teams to meet the Bears. They were joined by four midwestern coaches—Mal. "Biff" Jones, Nebraska; Don Faurot, Missouri; Tom Stidham, Marquette, and Charles Bachman, Michigan State. Snavely and Faurot were members of the All-Star coaching staff last year.

Michigan's Tommy Harmon, rated as the player of the 1940 season, continued as favorite among fans and coaches. Harmon, who previously was named on the ballots submitted by coaches of the Western Conference, Pacific Coast, and the south, was placed in the seven line-ups chosen by the eastern and midwestern coaches. Other favorites included Nick Draho, Cornell tackle; Walter Matusczak, Cornell quarterback; Charley O'Rourke, Boston College halfback; Gene Goodreault, Boston College end, and Augie Lio, Georgetown guard.

Seven easterners won places on Snavely's team. They are Alva Kelley, Cornell end; Earl Fullilove, Georgetown tackle; Raymond Frick, Pennsylvania center; Draho, Matusczak, O'Rourke, and Lio. Teams follow:
