finally I've got him." Betting men have made Zivic a 3-1 favorite to beat Cochrane, but red-headed Cochrane-one of the few red-headed challengers in boxing history-says, "Those odds are stupid, Although I haven't mush money, I've taken $300 against $900 myself. Sure—I've seen Zivic box six or seven times. He's good alright but a little old. Me and my double left hook will take good care of himof Ole Man Zivic-just as he

They are Tom Krehl in Wahoo Tounds. But, McTigue wasn't knocked out—as one would have to be to lose a title in those days—so he kept his title.

The representative of Commissioner Greene pointed out that newspaper decisions held good in New Jersey until 1929, when it was decreed that the referee should decide. In those days the fight distance ran from 8 to 12 rounds, but it was decreed that 15 rounds should be the championship flight in 1932. This was made definite last year by Commissioner Greene who announced, NEW YORK —(U.P)— The first "all championship fights must be wasn't starting to the founds of the fou "all championship fights must be Stillmoven, eighth.
