be the best kind of winning bridge, but it certainly is a great tonic to keep you from going to sleep. There are times when you can't figure out what in blazes he holds, or is trying to do, but on other occasions it is easy to read him. The cards in your own hand may make it perfectly clear just what he is

Your Week-End Lesson

How are you on your matheknow how to figure the odds for and against various develop-down together to play 20 rubbers, pivoting after each rubber. What are the chances that some partic-
