Wiley Also Opposes Bill Also against the extension bill is Sen. Alexander Wiley, Chippewa Falls Republican, who said the war situation is "far less critical Woman Charges it was," he insisted. "Roosevelt just made the assertion."

Referring to the "many hundreds of letters" he has received in support of his stand, Wiley asserted that only a neglible number "Th approved the service extension

Perusal of his correspondence shows two central themes. First, a suspicion is expressed that the to oppose the tax law amendment eal purpose behind the legislation s to provide an American expedilionary force; second, a general resentment is noted that men should be kept in service when they entered believing they would serve one year, even though the selective service act specified they were subject to longer service upon action by congress, "Scotland in Western Hemisphere"

These two points are repeated by Wisconsin house members who say President Roosevelt is "taking the country into war" and con-
