"That Uncertain Feeling" Will Open Wednesday With Merle Oberon And Melvyn Douglas In Lead Roles

High comedy at its brightest and best is offered in "That tion to screen entertainment. Uncertain Feeling," commencing Wednesday at the Sigma theatre with Melvyn Douglas and Merle Oberon in the stirring roles. Burgess Meredith, featured in support of the stars, is cast as an eccentric and entirely uninhibited pianist with a yen for surrealistic art. "I'll Wait For You" is the co-feature.

Presenting a dazzling array of stars and a variety of talent that staggers the imagination, "The Goldwyn Follies," com-mences Tuesday at the Lyric theatre. Edgar Bergen and Char-lie McCarthy, Kenny Baker, Pbil Baker, the Ritz Brothers, Zorina and Relen Jepson are some of the stars. Co-featured is "Dead End." John Wayne, Betty Field and Harry Carey are the stars of the current Ohio attraction, "Shepherd of the Hills," film version of a popular novel by Harold Bell Wright. From the start of the film the picture builds suspense and power without relaxing its pace until the dramatic climax.
