Army And Navy Pictures To Be Presented At The Lyric

"231/2 Hours Leave" And "Sweetheart Of The Navy," Are Scheduled To Open Engagement On Tuesday

How a snappy and self-assured young sergeant in a U. S. Army camp in 1917 dares to bet his mates that he will eat breakfast with the general, whom he has never seen, and how he wins the wager, forms the farcial background for the film, "231/2 Hours Leave," commencing Tuesday at the Lyric theatre. James Ellison and Terry Walker are the stars. Eric Linden and Cecelia Parker provide an interesting romance of the great branch of service in the co-feature,
