National Barn Dance To Be Aired At Wisconsin's Fair

Hayloft Crew To Get Keys To The City Of Milwaukee During Broadcast Scheduled For

8 P. M. On Saturday The keys to the City of Milwaukee will be turned over to the Hayloft Crew Saturday, when the "National Barn Dance" turns up for its broadcast from the Wisconsin State Fair at 8 p. m. over WEAF. That crusading managing editor of "City Desk" and his sleuthing repertorial stars-Linda Webster and Jack Winters-will once again be off chasing an exclusive news story and solving a puzzling crime at 7:30 p. m. "Defense for America," having for the past 25 weeks gone -Mrs. Martha G. Maitin, mother of to major plants producing defense the dead youth. Police quoted materials, Saturday, will visit the three branches of the service to Mitchell as saying he found Martin, his chest crushed, lying along a highway last Wednesday and that he drove him to a hospital in The broadcast, heard at 7 p. m. nearby. He was dead on arrival at the hospital. ever WEAF with cooperation of the National Association of Manufacturers, marks the end of a half year of reporting on defense production from the closely guarded plants and industries spread across the continent and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf
