Double-Thriller Is Booked For State Fans On Thursday

"Man-Made Monster" And "Horror Island" Have Lon Chaney, Jr., Lionel Atwill, Dick Foran And Leo Carrillo Starred

A pair of chillers, "Man-Made Monster" and "Horror Island," open Thursday at the State theatre with Lon Chaney, Jr., Lionel Atwill and Anne Nagel starred in the former, and Dick Foran, Leo Carrillo and Peggy Moran stars of the latter. Showing for the last times Wednesday are "I Wanted Wings," with Ray Milland, William Holden, Wayne Morris and Brian Donlevy, and "Play Girl," starring Kay Francis.

OHIO-"Life Begins For Andy Hardy." A story with a touch of hillbilly, big business and high society all coming in for their share of lampooning at the hands of the star, Judy Canova, "Puddin' Head," is currently offered at the Quilna theatre. Assembled in support of Miss Canova are Frances Lederer, Raymond Walburn, Eddie Foy, Jr., and Slim Summerville. Alan Baxter and Mary Carlisle star in the co-feature, "Rags to Riches."

Creeping with chills and crack-ng with comedy, "The Black at" mystory thriller at the Sigma theatre, stars Basil Rathbone. Hugh Herbert, Bela Lugosi and Brod Crawford. The story of a girl who almost let her head lead her into an error of the heart, is "West Point Widow," the co-feature which stars Richard Carlson and Anne Shirley.

"Sunset in Wyoming," newest of Gene Autry's musical westerns. is currently at the Lyric theatre with a supporting cast headed by Smiley Burnette. The story has to do with the tribulations of Gene as a youthful rancher in a valley facing flood devastation. Co-featured is "Silver Stallion," a thrilling story of wild horses.

Hardy family enthusiasts have a new picture to cheer about in the latest of the group, "Life Be-gins For Andy Hardy," which is currently at the Ohio theatre. Mickey Rooney, the popular Andy, embarks on his business career, with his girl friend, Judy Garland, saving him from several predicaments. Lewis Stone, Fay Holden, Ann Rutherford and Sara Holden are in the cast.

SIGMA

The Sigma's current film. "The Black Cat," indeed has an imposing array of the chill and comedy experts in the cast, including Basil Rathbone, Hugh Herbert,
