Wide Variety Of Pictures On Screens Of Lima's Theatres

Burnstead Family Starting Friday At Quilna; Gene Autry At Lyric; Ohio Playing Mickey *Rooney

A new episode in the life of the Bumstead family, "Blondie in Society," will be offered at the Friday preview showing of the Quilna theatre, with Arthur Lake, Penny Singleton and Larry Simms in their familiar roles as Dagwood, Blondie and Baby Dumpling, respectively. Co-featured will be "Naval Academy," starring Freddie Bartholomew, while the concluding features are "Pud-din' Head" and "Rags to Riches." Anne Shuley and Richard Carlson are the romintic team stailed in the current Sigma theatre attraction, "West Point Widow," with the plot revolving around an interne's quest for the hand of a girl in love with a cadet. The cofeature, "The Black Cat," a thrilling chiller, stars Basil Rathbone,

Bela Lugosi, Hugh Heibert and Broderick Crawford.

At the Lyric theatre Gene Autry is the star of "Sunset in Wyoming," with the singing cowboy back in the saudle with new songand a new formula for adventure, Smiley Burnette, comedian pal of Autry, heads the supporting cast, Also showing is "Silver Stallion." an outdoor film offering the grory of an intelligent horse.

Mickey Rooney sets out on his business career in the latest of the Hardy family films, "Lafe Begins For Andy Hardy," now at the Ohio theatre. Ever-popular with the beautiful damsels, Rooney is surrounded by three-Judy Garland, Ann Rutherford and Patricia Dane, Lewis Stone as Judge Hardy and Fay Holden as Mis. Hardy complete the cast.

A pair of thrillers, "Horror Is-nd" and "Man Made Monster" are the attractions at the State theatre. Dic't Foran, Leo Carrillo and Peggy Moran are the stars of the first-named film, while Lon-Chency, Jr., Lionel Atwill and Anne Nagel appear in the second,
