School Teacher's Career Basis Of Dramatic Story

'Cheers For Miss Bishop" Stars Martha Scott At State Theatre; Exciting Serial Opens At A Lyric Thursday

The gay and tragic sides of a school teacher's life are both revealed in "Cheers for Miss Bishop," dramatic film starring Martha Scott and commencing Thursday at the State theatre. William Gargan, in the role of early sweetheart of Miss Scott, heads the supporting cast. Also commencing Thursday will be "Million Dollar Baby." Concluding films

Wednesday are Robert Taylor's "Billy the Kid," and "Model Wife."

Dealing with a scientific expedition traveling into the heart of Siam to seek knowledge of the ancient Scorpion dynasty, "Adventures of Captain Marvel," commencing at the Lyric theatre Thursday, will present the first of 12 exciting chapters of thrills and adventures. Tom Tyler is cast in the lead role. Richard Arlen and Andy Devine are the stars of the accompanying full-length feature, Lucky Devils." Also showing is "Father Steps Out."

One of the most imposing lineups of comics ever assembled for motion picture is in "Cracked" Nuts," the current Sigma attraction which stars Stuart Erwin, Una Merkel, Mischa Auer, William Frawley and Astrid Allwyn. Co-featured is "Wide Open Town.

Jack Benny adds another title to his list as he stars in "Charley's Aunt," now at the Quilna theatre. Benny becomes Glamor Girl of 1941, in reverse, when he dons the attire of womanhood to aid a palin distress, while Kay Francis is seen as the real aunt.
