Ohio Books Dorothy Lamour In Tale Of South Seas Love

Jon Hall, Lynne Overman And Phillip Reed Have Leading Roles In Picture Scheduled To Open Run On Friday

The long awaited "Aloma of the South Seas," will come to the Ohio theatre Friday. This music-filled thrill spectacle in glowing technicolor features Dorothy Lamour, Jon Hall, Lynne Overman and Philip Reed. "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," mystery hit starring!

Spencer Tracy and Ingrid Bergman, will show thru Thursday.

The dramatic romance between a two-fisted lumberjack and his dance hall queen sweetheart highlights the colorful action in "Wild Geese Calling," coming to the Quilna theatre Friday night, "Sun Valley Serenade," which shows thru Friday afternoon, tells of a band and their stay at the resort.

Still attracting patrons to the Lyric is "Penny Serenade," starring Irene Dunne and Cary Grant. You'll see how a small child keeps a couple, who operate a weekly newspaper, from separating, "Missing 10 Days," an action drama, completes the bill.

Several of Hollywood's best actors and actresses are in the two hits now current at the Sigma theatre. In "The Parson of Panamint," Charles Ruggles and Ellen Drew have principal roles and in "Hurry, Charles, Hurry," Leon Errol and Mildred Coles furnish

Merle Oberon, Dennis Morgan and Rita Hayworth share honors in "Affectionately Yours," half of the State program. In the other production, "Pot O' Gold," Horace Heidt and his band members, James Stewart and Paulette Goddard have leading parts. Two top-rate hits, "The Mad Doctor," and "Men of Boy's Town" are at the Majestic theatre.
