

Jimmy Durante Will Retire His Famous "Schnozzle"

Comic Claims Huge Nose To Receive Rest Star Appearing In New Picture About Life In United States Forces

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Hollywood
Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 20—(UP)—Jimmy (The Schnozzle) Durante put his magnificent nose out to pasture today; henceforth he's going to soft pedal it.

"What" demanded Othman. "You mean you're going to have it bobbed?"

The Durante exploded: "I should say not. That would be like knifing an old friend. Once I was offered a fortune by a plastic surgeon to carve da old schnozzle down. I didn't give it a second thought. Not a thot."

Mr. Durante, whose schnozzle has been serving him faithfully and well for the last 25 years, said he once insured it for $100,000 for a month against damage, including bending. He did that for publicity purposes. And he got the publicity. The old schnozzle didn't desert him. His nose has, in fact, been so important to his artistic career that he refers to it as another person, like this:

"I want him to take a rest," Durante said. "I'm not going to mention him any more. Been a fine old schnozzle. Never given me trouble. Never let me down. From now on he will solve me for breathing purposes, only."

We are sorry we have to put the Durante dialogue in cold type. Wish we could give you customers a phonograph record so you could get the full flavor of the inimitable Durante speech, which sounds something like a locomotive chugging up a hill during a tornado. If you'll just imagine that, we'll continue:

Durante currently is appearing with that other comic, Phil Silvers, in another drama of army life, titled with no great originality, "You're In The Army Now." This is different from the other war comedies, tho. Messrs. Durante and Silvers enlist. They aren't drafted.

This morning on Warner stage three, Director Lew Seiler had Rookies Durante, Silvers, and others lined up, getting their clothing rationed. The sergeant handed Silvers a suit of long wool underwear.

"What size?" demanded Silvers. "What do you care?" retorted the soldier. "His costing yuh nothing."

"It is not the cost," replied Silvers. "It is the unrecap." And so on.

After the take Durante came over to report that his nose was news and that that wasn't all.

"For de foist time in me life, I'm usin' make-up," he said. "Hey, I don't look so much like a mackerel. A fine ting. An' also, Look!"

Mr. Durante turned himself around to exhibit a fine head of chestnut-colored hair.

"What you tink?" he demanded. "A hair piece. To cover me bald spot. In case de camera shoots over me shoulder. Sex appeal dat's me."

Durante probably is the most forthright comic in the business. And certainly the most energetic. When he's working on the stage he knocks himself out nightly. Been doing it for a quarter of a century. He also is one of the most popular gentlemen in the industry. That's because he's got a kind heart.

We hate to sound somnolent, but a few more Durantes, with hearts to match, wouldn't hurt this town at all.

LEGION PICKS LEADERS
ST. MARY'S, Sept. 20—The local post of the American Legion has chosen George Hasler as its commander for the coming year. Other officials are Fred E. Koenig, first vice commander; Leo Rohr, second vice commander; J. F. Baxter, finance officer; Leonard Hoagland, historian; William Howell, sergeant at arms and Carl R. Ise, chaplain.

W. C. Fields Set For Scrap With McCarthy On Program

Special Guards Set To Search Comedian For Concealed Weapon As Old Enemies Renew Feud At 7 P. M. Via WEA-F

Charlie McCarthy will have special guards posted in the Hollywood studio during the broadcast Sunday to search comedian W. C. Fields for concealed weapons when he arrives to put in a guest appearance and renew his feud of long-standing with Bergson's brash and impish youngster. The show will go on WEA-F at 7 p. m.

On his final Sunday Evening Summer Hour program Sunday, for which he is guest conductor, Meredith Willson will baton two of his recent compositions, "Two in Love," a popular number, and "Never Feel Too Weary to Pray," a spiritual from his music for Sam Goldwyn's film, "The Little Foxes." The Sunday Evening Summer Hour is heard over WABC at 8 p. m.

Eleanor Holm, former champion Olympic swimmer and wife of Billy Rose, will be the guest of Bill Stern on his "Sports Newsweek of the Air" on Sunday at 8:45 p. m. over WJZ.

The beautiful Irish melody, "Believe Me If All These Endearing Young Charms," will be sung by Gladys Swarthout and the interesting story of how Thomas Moore came to write this ever-popular song will be told by Deems Taylor on the Sunday broadcast of The Family Hour at 4 p. m. over WABC.

"Death Goes to a Party," a strange tale of a hitch-hiking corpse, will be the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" offering Sunday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ. Ralph Forbes, popular stage and screen actor, will be heard as the warden.
