At the Quilna theatre Tyrone Power's latest starring film, "A Yank in the R. A. F." will be shown at the Friday preview. Aerial batiles, the thrilling escape from Dunkirk and other high spots in the current was are included in the film story. Betty Grable provides the romantic inspiration with John Sutton and Reginald Gardiner heading the supporting cast.

Hilarious Red Skelton spreads mirth by the wholesale in "Whistling in the Dark," the current film at the Sigma in which Red is starfed as a radio "crime creator" forced by criminals to invent a practical "perfect murder" for them. Co-featured is a thrilling story, "Lady Scarface," with Dennis O'Keefe, Judith Anderson, Frances Neal and Eric Blove Mystery, suspense, intrigue and murder all play important roles in the film, "Poison Pen," currently at the Lyric theatre with Flora Robson, Robert Newton and Ann Toda in the starring roles. The Three Mesquiteets. Tom Tyler, Rufe Davis and Bob Steele, are the stars of the co-feature, "Outlaws of the Cherokee Trail." Also on the bill is the sixth chapter of "Captain Marvel,"

Madeleine Carroll and Fred MacMurray, star of many thrilling romances, are seen together again in "One Night in Lisbon," currently at the State theate. Also showing is "Scattergood Pulls tory towns and decided to devote "free wheeling," the Strings," with Guy Kibbee portraying the title role.

At the Majestic theatre is "The Penalty," starting Laonel Barrywith Gone Autry at the head of acting as a noppy, the lest is out of this world "history! Not long afterward, she out of this world"

"Lady Scarface." Dennis O'Keefe, as the law officer: Judith Anderson, as the female Dillinger, and Frances Neal, Mildred Coles and Eric Blore, comprise the cast of principals.

LYRIC

Flora Robson, well remembered by American audiences for her excellent work as Queen Elizabeth in "Fire Over England," is appearing at the Lyric theatre where her latest film, "Poison Pen," is now being shown.

Miss Robson's career has been diversified to say the least. After being graduated from school, she became interested in social science and was given an opportunity to
