MADISON, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1941 News Broadcasts BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

Movie scouts have finally caught up with Peggy Knudsen, actress heard on various CBS shows, more recently as the sister of the "Woman in White." Peggy takes her screen test for 20th Century Fox next week—then off for Hollywood.

Midwest sentiment on admendment or outright repeal of the neutrality act will be sounded tonight in a "People's Platform" broadcast from Des Moines, Ia., through WBBM at 6. An editor, a club-woman, a clergyman, and an attorney will present "typical ru-

Greenberg Swap Prize Silly Rumor

By GEORGE KIRKSEY NEW YORK --(U.P)- Baseball potpourri: This is the silly season in baseball . . . from now until the minor league meeting in Jack-sonville, Fla., Dec. 3, 4, and 5 you'll hear more silly rumors about baseball trades and deals than you can shake a stick at . . . the baseball moguls partly are to blame because they close up shop and scatter hither and you and it's not easy to check on hot stove league rumors. Until a better one comes along we have to award first prize for silly trades to the three-cornered deal cooked up between the Red Sox, Indians and Tigers . . . in this one the Red Sox were to get Hank Greenberg, Lou Boudreau and Ray Mack, the Indians to get Bobby Doer, Jim Tabor and Jimmy Foxx and the Tigers land Hal Trosky

. . in other words the Tigers are giving up Greenberg and landing Trosky . . . can you even imagine anything like that happening? . . . and where did the idea originate that Greenberg can't play ball in

By Shepard Barclay a diamond discard on clubs, to prevent the possible loss of two diamond tricks. Accordingly, he led the club Q and let it ride through to the K. East naturally wanted to get

The trouble with West was that he was angry because his partner did not return a heart to knock

GIVE HIM CREDIT THERE ARE times when your partner will make plays which at the moment seem to be definitely incorrect. You will wonder why in blazes he failed to do something which to you appeared to be obviously the winning move. Are West into the lead so that he might get a club ruff, so picked you going to consider that he still is the same good partner and had a special reason for what he did? the diamond 3 to return. He was overjoyed when his partner showed up with the diamond A, but his happiness was short lived when West returned the heart 10. If the latter, you may catch his idea and make the ultimate win-back in a Tiger uniform next March with bygones being bygones. Lombardi to Giants

Ernie Lombardi is making the guess that he'll play for the Giants next season . . . maybe Ernie knows something . . . it's our guess that if Harry Danning is placed on the market the Reds will outbid the field to get him because they have more pitching talent than anybody else to use for trading material . . . the rumor that Chuck Dressen may become pilot of the Cleveland Indians is taken with a grain of salt in most quarters . . . Dressen is strictly a National League man.

The best bet in the rumor mar-ket is that Babe Phelps positively will not play with the Brooklyn Dodgers next season . . . and you can add Luke Hamlin's name to Phelps' although there may not be much of a market for "Hot Potato Luke." . . . Joe Cronin finally has announced his retirement as regular shortstop of the Red Sox . . , he'll let John Pesky from Louisville and Eddie Pellagrini from San Diego battle for his job this spring and confine his duties to acting as utility infielder and pinch-hitter . . . is there anything to the report that the Reds might land Roy Weatherly, the Indian's stormy petrel who finished the season in the Cleveland doghouse?

Casey Talked Out of Turn The Brooklyn football Dodgers are blaming Larry MacPhail for being a contributing cause to their three straight defeats . . . They claim that MacPhail hampered their practice and execution of plays because he ordered them to wear basketball shoes to protect the diamond . . . Dolf Camilli is one of the few baseball players who's been able to get away with flying a plane . . . he has his own Fairchild plane and flew from New York back to California in it after the World Series . . . a few years ago Stanley Hack was an aviation enthusiast and qualified as a pilot but the Cubs made him give it up as too dangerous. Reports that Red Rolfe will retire from baseball because of his health have been bouncing around but Red himself remains mum . an attack of colitis laid him low last September and he just did get back in shape for the World Series . . . Rothschild Stable Sold at Auction in Forced Action

VICHY - (U.P) - The famed Racine stable of the Baron Edouard de Rothschild, one of the most valuable on the French turf and winner of such races as the Grand Prix de Paris and England's 1,000 guineas, has been dispersed at a forced sale ordered by the high commissariat of Jewish affairs.

The sale was held in Paris Friday and brought record prices, as much as 100,000 francs being bid for certain yearlings. The highest price went for Torcello, a yearling out of Telephorique by Torbay, while a group of eight youngsters sold for 600,000 francs.

All money taken in at the sale was confiscated by the government under a decree which deprives the What would you do in fourth hand position after three passes with both sides vulnerable, holding either of the two hands given be-Rothschilds of their French nationality and liquidates their fortunes for having fled the country during the German invasion,
