Farmer, to Talk on Air

MRS, C. A. DYKSTRA

Mrs. C. A. Dykstra, Number 1 co-ed of the University of Wisconsin agricultural short course will appear as guest interviewer of the WIBA farm roundup pro-

Mrs. Dykstra, who has just purchused a farm of her own and enrolled in the short course, will question V. E. Kiylin, short course director and assistant dean of the college of agriculture, on matters of interest to her as a student and a farmer.

Kivlin will discuss more phases of the short course which will open Nov. 17. He will also discuss scholarship competition which just closed this week and announce

On Monday the farm roundup will present Sheriff Edward Fischer, to continue his series of talks on police protection to Dane county residents by means of the unique "night patrol."

Husking Contest Plans

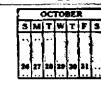

E. R. McIntyre, associate editor of the Wisconsin Agriculturist and Farmer, and member of the state cornhusking contest committee will speak on the Thursday program, He will tell about plans for the La Crosse state cornhusking championship Thursday.

This week, listeners to "Mary Foster, the Editor's Daughter" will have opportunity to become acquainted with an old doctor who holds much promise of becoming a peace-maker and heart-

By coincidence, the famous Dr. Byron of New York engages Philip Day as his chauffeur, And Phil's first trip is to Valley Springs, the home of his estranged wife, Mary Foster Day, The doctor gives Phil a "talking to" on Dr. Barry Lord, the innocent cause of the rift between Philip and Mary. Then lates the control of the control o limbs, he may be able to do over WIBA.
