"PERFECT" CO-EDS

Musical Film Scheduled As Co-Feature At The Sigma

Laurel And Hardy, Comedy Team, At Quilna; Bob i-lope Holds Spotlight At Ohio; Western Film At Lyric

Embellishing an intriguing story with hit song numbers and sensitional dancing routines, "Sing Another Chorus" stars Jane Frazee in the film scheduled to open Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. Adding merriment to the story are Johnny Downs, Mischa Auer, Walter Catlett and George Barbier. "Buy Me That Town" is the co-feature while Tuesday's concluding films are "Badlands of the Dakotas" and "Spooks Run Wild."

Laurel and Hardy, with their amazing ability to create chaos anywhere, are provided with an army camp in their current film, "Great Guns," row at the Quilna theatre. A marital mixup provides the basis for the co-feature, "Moon Over Her Shoulder," starring Lynn Bari, John Sutton and Dan Dailey, Jr.

Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard are the starring combination of "Nothing But the Truth," renewed and revived comedy that set Broadwayites laughing for several scasons. The film is based on a rash man's bet that he could tell the truth for 24 consecutive hours. It is showing at the Ohio theatre.

The State theatre offers "Dive Bombers," a full-color thrilling story of the men who make flying machines safer. Fred MacMurray as a test pilot, and Errol Flynn and Ralph Bellamy as flight surgeons are the stairing trio. Jean Hersholt is cast as Dr. Christian in another medical adventure, "They Meet Again."

"Ruggles of Red Gap," memorable Bret Harte western story, is returned to the screen at the Lyric with Charlie Ruggles and Charles Laughton in the stairing roles.
