Four Great Stars Featured In New Quilna Attraction

"Week-End In Havana" Has Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne And Cesar Romero In The Leading Roles

A cinematic solourn into Latin America is provided in the film, "Week-end in Havana," commencing Friday evening at the Quilna theatre with a four-star cast headed by Alice Fave. Carmen Miranda, John Payn and Cesar Romero. The concluding films Friday are Laurel and Hardy's latest laugh creation, "Great Guns," and the comedy, "Moon Over Her Shoulder," starring Lynn Bari, John Sutton and Dan Dailey, Jr.

The intricate maze into which a playful bet can lead a man, is revealed in the Ohio feature, "Nothing But the Truth," starring Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard. The bet, $10,000 that he could tell the truth for 24 hours and answer all questions, is made by Bob Hope. A real test is provided by his co-brokers, Edward Arnold, Leif Erickson and Glenn Andrews, who force Hope into many comic situations.

Showing for the last times Thursday at the Majestic is the memorable story, "Ruggles of Red Gap," starring Charles Laughton, Charles Ruggles and ZaSu Pitts in the story of the English butler who brought a greater appreciation of American life to his employers, a western family. Ralph Bellamy and Margaret Lindsay are the stars of the co-feature. "Ellery Queen and the Perfect Crime."

What happens when the bottom drops out of the racket business and gangsters find themselves unemployed-and without any WPA projects specially built for them-is depicted in "Buy Me That Town" with Lloyd Nolan Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore and Albert Dekker head the cast. Co-featured is "Sing Another Chorus," starring Johnny Downs, Mischa Auer and Walter Catlett.

Dennis Morgan, Wayne Morris and Arthur Kennedy are three of the adventurous characters of "Bad Men of Missouri," the current State theatre thriller offering a story of some of the early West's most notorious personalities. The co-feature, "World Premiere," starring John Barrymore, Frances Farmer and Ricardo Cortez, depicts the trouble of a director trying to find a spot to introduce his latest super-colossal to the public with the usual trim-
