

"Gang Busters" Will Relate How Bandits Were Captured

John Doe And Richard Roe Come To Just End As Program Discloses; Broadcast Set For 9 P. M. Friday

John Doe and Richard Roe are the nebulous men whose names you encounter on specimen checks and on court papers, but you would hardly expect them to materialize as threatening gunmen while the third member of their gang, Boss, scooped up all available cash around the place.

Yet that is just what happened when three criminals adopted these names and staged a series of cleverly planned hold-ups in the middle west, a year of banditry which will be revealed in the "Gang Busters" broadcast over WJZ Friday from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

"The Devil and Miss Jones," which starred Jean Arthur on the screen, has been selected as the vehicle for Lana Turner on Charles Martin's "Playhouse" over WABC Friday, at 9 p. m. The story is about a girl in a department store who is called out on strike. Her boss, disguised as a worker, also goes out on strike. Resultant complications are rib-splitting. Ray Block and his orchestra supply original background music. Nelson Case and Johnny the Call Boy represent the sponsor.

Alice Faye and Phil Regan will co-star in a radio adaptation of Hollywood's latest film, "Week End In Havana" on the Hollywood Premiere program Friday, at 10 p. m. via WABC network. Louella Parsons will femcece and Felix Mills' music will supply the orchestral background.

When Connie Chase applies modern psychology to husband Jeff she winds up fast in the feminine section of "Uncle Walter's Dog House," where the sad tale will be told Friday, at 9:30 p. m., over WJZ.
