Reckless Opponents Stand In Path Of Three Undefeated Slates

NEW YORK, Nov. 22-(AP)-It's the end of the glory road today for a majority of the collegiate football teams and nowhere will; the sunset be more welcome than at Duke, Notre Dame and Minnesota, where unbeaten elevens prevailed at dawn.

Each club is playing its last scheduled game against a reckless rival, Duke meeting North Carolina State, Notre Dame host to Southern California, and Minnesota seeking its 17th straight from point-crazy Wisconsin.

All three of the unbeaten elevens are favored but the Irish still remember 1938 when they entered the Trojan fray without a blemish and were blanked. Upsets have two ravalries.
