

Gang Busters To Tell Fate Of Vicious Border Murderer

Kate Smith's Annual All-Collegiate Football Team Will Be Announced During Program Friday Evening

The dramatic career of the killer of the Texas-Oklahoma border country who feared imprisonment more than he did death, will be presented as the "Gang Busters" case to be heard over WJZ Friday from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

The presentation, originally scheduled for the previous Friday, was postponed for a week as radio directors, writers and actors worked feverishly to present the case of Juanita "Duchess" Spinelli, 33, whose two accomplices, Gordon Hawkins, 23, and Mike Simone, 33, were executed that very morning for complicity in a gang murder. The death of the pair and the especially prepared broadcast followed by one week the execution of their leader, the Duchess.

Kate Smith's sixth annual All-Collegiate Football team, chosen by a combined vote of more than 600 leading college coaches, will be announced during the star's Variety Hour over WABC Friday, at 8:00 p. m. The team will sing Johann Strauss' "Blue Danube" waltz as a highlight of the Cities Service Concert, Friday, at 8:00 p. m. over WEA. The soprano solo will be heard in "Be Still My Heart" by Flynn.

The biggest band plum of the year, a date to play at "Stanley College," is drawn by Ted Steele, his rising young orchestra and

YULE PENNIES TO SHINE AGAIN

(Lima News Bureau) OTTAWA, Dec. 5.—Harry B. Rampe died this year but his custom of giving away 1,000 shiny, new pennies each Dec. 24 kiddies in Ottawa is to live after him. His widow, Mrs. Lucille Rampe, and his sister, Miss Emma Rampe, said today that one of his last requests was that this custom be continued. So they have arranged for employees of the Boston Store to distribute the pennies at 3 p. m. Dec. 24 in front of the store which was the site of Rampe's business before he sold it a few years ago.
