U. W. Players Prepared for New Show

Carl Cass, stage manager of the Wisconsin Union theater, puts the finishing touches to make up for one of the Wisconsin Players before a production in the theater. Students apply their own make-up for most productions aided by student specialists. The next Wisconsin Players show will be "Libel!" to be staged Dec. 10, 11, 12, 13 under the direction of J. Russell Lanc.

No one can condemn us for defending ourselves against an unust aggressor, and we noust now present a united front to bring the war to a happy conclusion, the Rev. William Mahoney, St. Ra-phael's Catholic church, told an overflow congregation at a holy day mass Monday noon,

"Little did I think ears bak that I would again address a con-gregation of mine to tell them this nation was at war," Fr. Mahoney said, "but ere this mass is over the congress of the United States will

"The time for argument, for opinions, is past. We must now present a united front. Let us pray to God Almighty that he will save America, that in a short time we will see the end of it, and that peace will come back to our land."
"We pray god that we may have the courage, the ingenuity, I the the courage, the ingenuity, I the strength to bring this war to a quick, decisive conclusion," Fr. Mahoney said, in a quiet, powerful appeal to his parishioners.

"We must give all our thought,
