New Hopalong Cassidy Film Starts Thursday At Lyric

Bill Boyd Has Title Role In Exciting "Wide Open Town:" Second Film On Double Feature Program Is "Citadel Of Crime"

The most popular character of western adventure stories, Hopalong Cassidy, is portrayed by William Boyd in the thrilling episode. "Wide Open Town," commencing Thursday at the Lyric theatre, where it is co-featured with "Citadel of Crime," starring Robert Armstrong, Frank Albertson and Linda Hayes. Also showing is the exciting serial, "Riders of Death Valley," starring Dick Foran and Buck Jones.

The hilarious troubles that surround the wedding of a wealthy shipping magnate and a temperamental stage star form the basis for the Sigma film, "Father Takes a Wife," starring Adolphe Menjou and Gloria Swanson, idol of a decade ago. Co-featured is "Rid-ing the Wind." starring Tim Holt in another of a series of western action hits.

Marjoric Weaver, George Reeves and Richard Derr have the leading roles in "Man at Large," currently at the Quilna theatre. It is an exciting episode of F. B. I. activities as they smash spy rings. George Montgomery portrays the fastest trigger man east or west of the Pecos in his newest starring role in "The Last of the Duanes," the co-feature.

The craziest co-pilots of the entire air force are Bud Abbott and Lou Costello in "Kcep 'Em Flythe feature now showing at the Ohio theatre. Assisting the funny pair in their air antics are Martha Raye, Carol Bruce. William Gargan and Dick Foran. Commencing Saturday will be "Birth of the Blues," starring starring vehicle also showing, Bing Crosby, Mary Martin and Brian Donlevy.
