

Charlie M'Carthy To Have Lana Turner As His Guest

Lovely Film Starlet Consents To Date; Bill Of Rights Will Be Marked On Family Hour Broadcast

Sooner or later impetuous Charley McCarthy, Edgar Bergen's bumptious alter ego, manages to date Hollywood's most desirable glamor girls. None stands higher on the list than beautiful Lana Turner who has consented to be Charlie's date on the show Sunday at 8 p. m. over WFAF.

Commemorating the 150th anniversary of the founding of The Bill of Rights, The Family Hour, featuring Gladys Swarthout, Deems Taylor and Al Goodman's orchestra, has scheduled Jay Gorney and Henry Myers' song, "The Bill of Rights," which baritone Ross Graham will sing on the program Sunday at 5 p. m. over WABC.

Two new pop tunes, "Happy in Love" and "Taboo," and two old favorites; "Mississippi Mud" and "Embraceable You," will be Dinah Shore's selections for the singing star's broadcast with Announcer Harry von Zell and Bandleader Paul Laval over WJZ Sunday at 9:45 p. m.

Art Kassel and his Kassel's in the Air will board the "Fitch Bandwagon" Sunday, with Toke Reed as host, for the broadcast at 7:30 p. m. over the WFAF.

Three co-eds from Western universities have been chosen semi-finalists in the "Hour of Charm" program's nationwide contest to find America's outstanding co-ed singer.

The winners are Phyllis Wilcox, 13, sophomore of the University of Indiana; Dorothy McVitty, 20, a junior of Ohio State University and former Lima resident, and Marilyn Skiles, 18, a sophomore of the University of Illinois. Each receives a cash prize of $1000, and will appear on the "Hour of Charm" program on Sunday, over WFAF at 10:00 p. m.

ADDED BURDENS BEING ASSUMED BY LIBRARIANS

Public libraries throughout the country are taking on special responsibilities under war conditions according to the report of the Lima librarian, George G. McAfee, to the board of trustees for November.

The American Library-association, state associations, and local boards are making definite plans not only to meet emergency needs for technical and other highly specialized material today, but are, with officers from the Public Work Reserve and National Resources Planning Board, making specific plans for the post-war period.

Nearly 500 new borrowers November, bringing the number of active card holders past the 21,000 mark. Public unrest and increased employment have had a marked effect on volume of reading. The calls are for specific titles rather than for large numbers of western and detective stories, Miss McAfee's report said.

Ford Launches Longer Week

DETROIT, Dec. 13 — (INS) — Less than a half week after the President's demand for all-out production, two titans of the billion-dollar automotive industry—General Motors and Ford Motor company—indicated today they are prepared to harness their energies to a full seven-day, 24-hour work week to keep the Allies supplied with arms for the defeat of the Axis.

Edsel Ford last night indicated all the company's defense plants already were operating under the new schedule, with practically all departments humming 24 hours a day.

The extended work-week came after the employees "volunteered unanimously" to go all-out in their efforts, Ford indicated. He said: "We have asked employees... to volunteer for a seven-day week until we can train additional men." Upon completion of the training of new personnel, the plants will remain open full-time, the industrialist said, but added that men would then only have to work the normal week.

A Report to OUR LISTENERS

We believe that every WLW listener is not only entitled to know—but has a deep and legitimate interest in knowing—just what plans have been carried out by The Nation's Station to insure comprehensive and dispassionate coverage of world events. No expense has been spared—nor will be spared—to the end that we fulfill completely this serious obligation to our audience.

Many months ago WLW began planning for just such a situation as we now face. Arrangements were made for the full leased-wire services of Associated Press and International News Service—with news bureaus in more than 100 cities of the U. S. and offices in several hundred cities throughout the world. Last week we contracted for the world-wide news coverage of the great British news agency, Reuters, oldest major news service in existence. With a staff of more than 8,000 permanent correspondents in every corner of the world, Reuters has exceptional coverage of the Far East, and since taking over the French news agency, Havas, has become increasingly active in Central and South America.

A number of months ago, also, we began a search for the best available authority on Far Eastern affairs. Thus, last week, Carroll D. Alcott, a 16-year veteran of Far East news reporting, as Shanghai's American newscaster, and Associate Editor of "China Press", joined our staff. For more than a year, we looked for a sound and competent observer on European affairs. And finally, on November 3rd, the authoritative "Background" broadcasts of Gregor Ziemer began. Gregor Ziemer headed Berlin's American Colony School for 11 years, he has watched the development of National Socialism since its inception, and he has interviewed most of the leaders of the Nazi party.

Behind radio's finest news room is William Dowdell, News Editor, a veteran of 20 years on the editorial staffs of great American newspapers, six years as City Editor of The Cincinnati Post.

All of the resources of The Nation's Station are committed to this end—that you may better understand the significance of events that hourly shape our destiny... that you, as a daily listener to WLW, may be a member of the best informed radio audience in the world.
