Radio to Tell of Christmas During Night

Church Services Music, Programs to Fill Airwaves

Church services, chimes, music, and drama will mark radio's observance of Christmas eve tonight. Among the outstanding programs on WIBA will be two annual events—presentation of "The Nutcracker Suite," with New York's Trinity chimes sounding the east's midnight, and a dramatization of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol."

The highlights, classified:

Canadian Cautions Americans Not to Shelve Their Athletics

EDITOR'S NOTE: This insight into the present Canadian attitude on sports should be particularly interesting to Americans now that our sports inture is in doubt because of the war.

Sports Editor Pittsburgh Press

PITTSBURGH—I have a letter from a Canadian friend of mine that seems to me to be particularly pertinent at the moment.

"Now you are in it, too," he writes. "Here in Canada we knew it would happen sooner or later, but few of us guessed how it would come about. We thought you would become involved in the Atlantic; instead they got you first in the Pacific. You must understand there much to help us carry on, but now we can go at them together. It is much easier and simpler when everybody pitches in.

We were first numbed by the shock of it all and then too tense for a logical appraisal of our own position. Those first few weeks
