Romantic Drama Being Shown On Screen At Ohio Theatre

"International Lady" Is Thrill-Packed Film Of War-Time Intrigue; Several Stars Featured

With George Brent, Ilona Massey and Basil Rathbone in the top starring roles, "International Lady," a thrill-packed spy melodrama highlighting the activities of a gang of international saboteurs, is now at the Ohio theatre. The supporting cast features Gene Lockhart and George Zucco as the story unfolds its dramatic action in London, Lisbon and New York.

Carole Landis, George Montgomery and John Shepperd are the stars of "Cadet Girl," romantic film of West Point, which commences at the Thursday preview showing at the Quilna theatre. Don Ameche and Joan Bennett are the stars of the co-feature, "Confirm or Deny," a story of front line war correspondents. Showing for the last times Thursday is "Rise and Shine," starring Jack Oakie.

Robert Preston and Ellen Drew are the romantic stars of the mystery film, "The Night of January 16," which is currently at the Sigma theatre. Nils Asther and Margaret Hayes have prominent roles in the thrilling story. Co-featured is "Riders of the Timberline," starring William Boyd in another "Hopalong" Cassidy ad-
