Weather Delays Calumet from Shipping Horses

LEXINGTON, Ky.-(U.P)-Calumet farms announced Thursday that the 53 Calumet thoroughbreds now in training at Santa Anita park would be kept in California until weather conditions permit their shipment to Keeneland track here and Oaklawn park in Hot Springs, Ark.

Dan Mahany, business manager of Warren Wright's turf interests, said he had talked via telephone with Ben Jones, the Calumet trainer now in California, and that Jones would probably accompany Whirlaway and six Kentucky derby eligibles to Hot Springs for sharpening there.
The Calumet horses, chief of which are Whirlaway, Some Chance, Sun Again, Col. Teddy and Wishbone, are not eligible for winter racing because they were nominated for stakes only at Santa Anita, where war has forced cessation of turf activities. The Calumet stable was the leading money winner in America
