

Kay Kyser, John Barrymore Teamed In New Ohio Movie

"Ol' Professor" And "The Great Profile" Provide Plenty Of Mirth In Fine Comedy "Playmates" Opening Saturday

Teaming for the first time on the screen the Ol' Professor and The Great Profile, "Playmates," comes to the Ohio screen Saturday starring Kay Kyser, with John Barrymore topping its brilliant cast of mirth-makers and tune-mixers. Favorites in the cast include Lupe Velez, May Robson, Patsy Kelly and the Kyser band with Ginny Simms, Harry Babbitt, Ish Kabibble and Sully Mason. Showing for the last times Friday is "The Corsican Brothers," starring Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

As big as the mighty state it glorifies, the breathtaking new drama of the old west, "Texas," opens Friday night at the Quilna theatre with William Holden, Claire Trevor and Glenn Ford starred. In the co-feature, "Sing For Your Supper," Jinx Falkenberg, the magazine cover girl, has the starring role. Showing for the last times Friday are "Confirm or Deny" and "Cadet Girl."

"The Chocolate Soldier," new musical comedy which opens Saturday at the Sigma theatre, offers Nelson Eddy in a gay, romantic role, and introduces Rise Stevens, a new singing star. The co-feature, "Niagara Falls," stars Marjorie Woodworth and Tom Brown. Showing for the last times Friday are "The Body Disappears" and "Among the Living."

Bill Elliott, appearing as Wild Bill Hickok, uses his blazing six-guns and flashing fists to restore law and order in "North From the Lone Star," now at the Lyric theatre. Dorothy Fay is the feminine inspiration in the exciting adventure film. Also at the Lyric is "Chum at the Wax Museum," starring Sidney Toler in the role of popular Oriental sleuth.

The Fighting Anzacs, tough battlers of Australia who are feared by any foe they happen to meet, are the stars of the current State film, "Forty Thousand Horsemen." Also showing is "Lady Scarface," with Dennis O'Keefe and Judith Anderson in the leading roles.

The Majestic films for Friday and Saturday are "In Old Cheyenne" and "Remedy For Riches."

LYRIC

Using his blazing six-guns to write a new bullet-studded chapter in the mighty story of the old west, Bill Elliott galloped across the Lyric theatre screen yesterday in his latest hit, "North From the Lone Star." Rapidly winning golden spurs for his excellent portrayals of Wild Bill Hickok, famous frontier marshal, Elliott again appears as the slow-drawling, quick-shooting pioneer character in another one of the breath-taking episodes in his hair-raising life!

Set in a picturesque western background, the story is an exciting one told to the tune of flashing fists and barking six-guns; A fine vehicle for Elliott's abilities in rough-and-tumble combat and in hard-riding sequences, the film opens in the small frontier town of Deadwood. "Flash" Kirby, a notorious outlaw, has taken control of the community and he and his band of bad men have abolished any semblance of law and order that ever existed in Deadwood.

Unable to resist the outlaws, the decent citizens of the town are living in terror when Wild Bill Hickok calmly rides into the village. Soon informed of the sorry state of affairs by his old friend, Cannonball, Hickok is persuaded to accept the position of marshal. Bringing his famous six-gun into action and using every trick he knows, Wild Bill succeeds in killing Kirby and driving his men away after a whirlwind series of bullet-spattered events!

SIGMA
Music lovers, regardless of their tastes, have a treat in store for them at the Sigma theatre, where "The Chocolate Soldier," new musical comedy, starring Nelson Eddy and Rise Stevens, opens Saturday. A brilliant production, musically and dramatically, it serves as an excellent vehicle with which to introduce Miss Stevens, Hollywood's newest singing star, who comes to the screen from the Metropolitan opera.

M-G-M has drawn from the popular Oscar Straus numbers, from opera and from classics, embellished with new and modern arrangements, to round out a musical repertoire for Eddy and Miss Stevens that is all-embracing. The story revolves about a married couple who are the musical comedy toasts of Vienna. The success they enjoy on the stage is, unfortunately, not repeated in their marital life for Miss Stevens, cast as Maria, is a flirtatious wench, and Eddy, as Karl, is a husband consumed by jealousy. It is not until Karl hits upon the resource of masquerading as his own rival that he is able to test his wife's faithfulness, a test which is obviously fraught with hilarious complications.

QUILNA

Hoofs pounding out new trails of empire! Guns blasting out new frontiers of freedom! Hearts beating out new sagas of courage! Here is a thundering epic of the heroic adventure... all the great action pictures you've ever dreamed of, rolled into one!

Hurling you headlong into a swirling tumult of flashing bullets and crashing herds, of smashing fists and clashing hearts, epic new drama, "Texas," opens Friday night at the Quilna theatre with William Holden, Claire Trevor and Glenn Ford starred. George Marshall directed the suspense-cramped, colorful, and heart-stirring new drama, savage saga of the great southwest, from the screen play by Horace McCoy, Lewis Meltzer and Michael Blankfort.

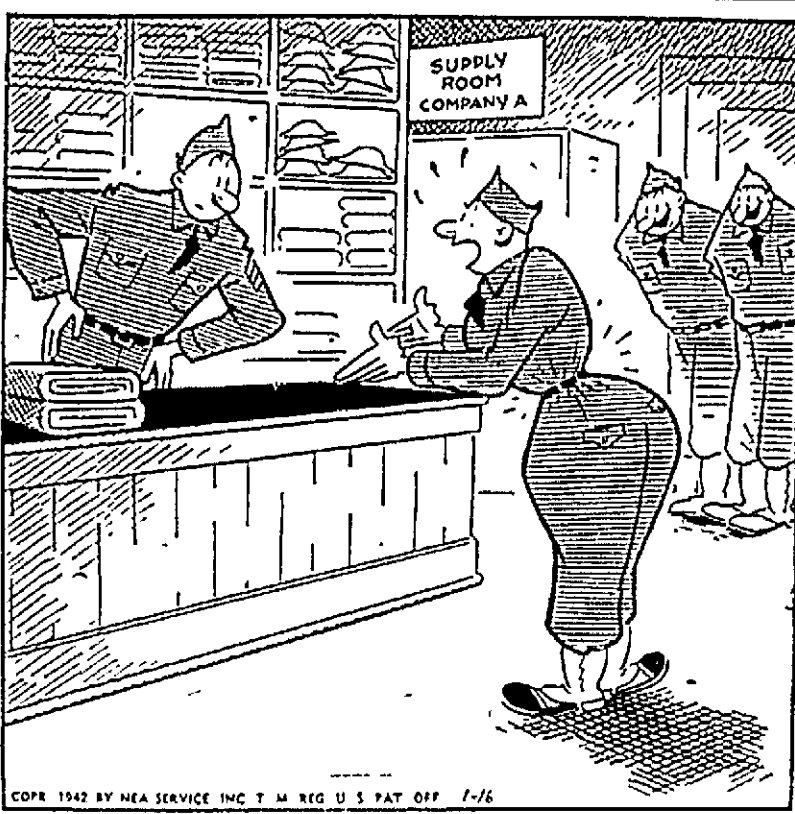

Blues for breakfast! Loving for lunch! Dancing for dinner! Swing for supper! It's a hot-heh day in the life of a dime-a-dance hall band when lovely Jinx Falkenberg steps out of the Blue Book... into the "blues"... and boy, can she sing 'em!

"Sing For Your Supper" brings the glamorous magazine cover girl to the Quilna theatre screen on Friday evening, as a Park-ay millionaire-heiress who carries the torch for a penniless band leader. Charles Buddy Rogers heads the featured supporting cast and other players include Eve Arden, Benny Baker and

FUNNY BUSINESS

"What did I join, anyway—the Army or the Florodora sextette? Gimme a bigger belt!"

Bert Gordon, radio's "Mad Russian."

OHIO

A band leader who "goes Shakespeare," a jilted Mexican lady bullfighter seeking vengeance, a once-great stage star forced to team with a live king, and two screwy press agents with one-track minds!

Such a conglomeration of characters are thrown together with hilarious results in the new Kay Kyser film, "Playmates," Opening Saturday at the Ohio theatre.

The popular band leader portrays himself in this riotous comedy with music, while John Barrymore is cast as a Shakespearean actor now on the skids who is trying to land a radio contract to bring the works of the immortal Bard to the air.

Patsy Kelly and Peter Lind Hayes, as the publicity agents of Barrymore and Kyser, respectively, concoct the wild scheme of having the distinguished actor teach the bandstand Shakespeare—a stunt that angers both performers, but bumps them unlimited publicity. How Barrymore seeks to double-cross his unwelcome team-mate and how Lupe Velez, as a fiery Latin bull-fighter who has been left at the altar by the Great Profile, further complicates their lives, are said to make for side-splitting comedy.

May Robson, Ginny Simms and such entertainers in the famous Kyser band as Harry Babbitt, Sully Mason and Ish Kabibble, all have prominent supporting roles in "Playmates."

HARDIN WHEAT GROWERS TO HOLD MEET SATURDAY

KENTON, Jan. 16.—Growers of wheat over Hardin-co are invited to attend a meeting Saturday at 2 p. m. in the courthouse auditorium here, which will be staged by the Hardin-co Farmers' Protective-union.

Charles E. Smith, recently elected president of the group, said that members will be asked to determine what action will be taken on a proposed wheat penalty injunction suit.
