Night Baseball to Cause Battle

Extension to Face Strong Opposition

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
NEW YORK—(U.R).—One of the biggest internal battles baseball has seen in many a day will take place when the major league nabobs gather in session with Commissioner K. M. Landis at a joint special session here Tuesday, Feb. 3. It'll be night baseball.

Some people have been under the impression that since the president's letter to Commissioner Landis Jan. 15, in which the chief executive said, "I hope that night

French Soprano Sings 'Carmen' Saturdaytime

Lila Djanel will make her American debut singing the title role in Bizet's "Carmen", the opera she last presented at the Paris Opera Comique just before the Nazis marched in, Saturday at 1 p. m., through WIBA. Sir Thomas Beechan, British conductor, too, will make his operatic debut in this country. Charles Kullman will sing opposite the young French soprano as Don Jose, Licia Albanese will be heard as Micaela. and Leonard Warren as Escamil-
