Ted Won't Be Able to Attend Fete

BOSTON-(U.P.)-There will an empty seat behind Ted Wil-liam's place card at the Boston Baseball Writers' annual banquet tonight, and take it from General

Princeton, Minn., today awaiting early induction into the army, Barlund's lower as he is, we're not sorry to see him go where he is going. Ted will be working for a bigger cause than baseball in the army. He'll be working for his country and we wish him luck." Collins Praises Williams

Williams, the first American League batter to break the .400 mark in years, was to have re-ceived the Jacob C. Morse Memorial Trophy emblematic of Boston's most valuable player opponent. Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees, was given the Paul H. Shannon Memorial Bowl for turning in the game's outstanding feat during 1941. DiMaggio, who is married and currently 3-A in the draft, will appear to receive his trophy but Williams who, came to the big leagues from San Diego, Calif., a year or two after Joe came up from San Francisco, was able only to tender his regrets.

"He is the greatest natural left-handed hitter I've ever seen." Collins said of Williams, "How-does an equally good job on the right-handed side for my money, 61 so I won't quarrel." 61 DiMaggio to Speak 55 Collins said the Red Sox were 53 hit hard by the loss of Williams, but that they also had lost such men as pitchers Mickey Harris, arguments of whether he is a bet-

Larry Powell and Earl Johnson and First Baseman Al Flair. "We're roud to lose them that way, however." he added. DiMaggio will share speaking duties with Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. (R., Mass.); Jimmy Conzelman, coach of the Chicago Cardinal football team; and Hugh Mulcahy, former Philadelphia Philly pitcher who was the first man to be drafted and now is stationed at Camp Edwards. A third award will be given Red Sox Pitcher Dick Newsome, chosen as the outstanding Boston Rookie of 1941.

World's Largest Dog Show Halted by War

MADISON, N. J. —(U.R)— The world's largest dog show, the 16th annual Morris and Essex county prize competition, was cancelled Tuesday because of war conditions.

The show was scheduled to open May 23 at nearby Giralda Farms, estate of Mrs. M. Hartley Dodge, the show's president and sponsor. In announcing the cancellation, Mrs. Dodge said she felt that the expense and fanfare connected with such a display of canine class was not in keeping with emergency conditions.
