The signs are down, but it is parking restrictions and obey them to the letter. Remember the meters are still working on the square and for a block off the square. We won't confuse the issue with anything about the meters, just remind you they are there if you wish to park for a cars, related last week the experishort period on or very close to the square.

If you don't want to put a coin in a meter you can go three blocks off the square into another restricted zone, where two-hour narking is the limit. There should always be plenty of room there, but not many motorists will walk much further than that. Residents of the area objected o all-day parking in front of their homes, so the motorists paid by not being able to park within several blocks of their work. And still, at the edge of the restricted zone, the first block would always be jammed with cars. Perhaps, if we let those cars move up town, residents further out will get relief.

And the people who have homes within a block or two of the square? I'm afraid they'll have to realize that they are living mighty close to a business district.

"He told of his effort to reach the residence of his son and his son's family who occupied a house on a side road between Livingston and Alexandria. To get there required a left turn off the main highway from the camp.

"He told of having stopped on the main highway, making signs with his arm indicating he must make a left turn. He said he had to sit there each time from 20 to 30 minutes before he could find a hole in the traffic bound in the opposite direction wide enough for him to squeeze through and onto the side road. Milwaukee Auto Salesmen to Ask Unemployment Pay

bile salesmen who lost their jobs because of the government's rationing restrictions looked forward today to receiving unemployment compensation. Some dealers had planned to contest benefits claiming that unemployment of their salesmen was due to an act of military or civil authority "directly affecting the place in which the workers were employed." However the industrial commis-ion awarded 700 employes of the Gillette Tire and Rubber Co., Eau Claire, compensation holding that the government order freezing rubber was general throughout the country and did not directly affect that "place" of employ-

The first place lake trout weighed 46 pounds, 8 ounces.
Three of the 10 lake trout winners in all were credited to Wisconsin.

The former yielded the first two muskies last year, one weighing 56 pounds, 8 ounces, and the other 52 pounds, 8 ounces. The third placer, caught in Grindstone by Theodore Meisner, weighed 50 pounds. Wisconsin placed three other muskles among the prize winners. Sixth place went to Crawling Stone lake, Vilas county, with a 45-pounder caught by Joseph H. Meyer. Chicago: seventh was caught in Lac Vieux Desert by Dr. Zenas M. Shafer and weighed 44 pounds; ninth weighed 42 pounds, 2 ounces and was caught in the Turtle flowage by Albert O. Gaiser. The eighth prize rainbow trout, reighing 6 pounds, was caught in Wisconsin's Brule river. First prize winner, weighing 15 pounds, 2 was caught in Catherine creek, New York.

The fifth prize great northern pike, weighing 30 pounds, came from Powers lake, Wisconsin, while the first prize winner, weigh-ing 41 pounds, 10 ounces, was caught in Lake Nipigon, Ontario. Wisconsin placed three winners in the walleyed pike division. The biggest walleye, 15 pounds, 3 ounces, came from the Tennessee river, and the second, 14 pounds, 8 ounces, from the Walhonding river, Ohio, but No. 3 was taken by Clyde Spencer in Lake Lucerne, near Crandon, Wis., and weighed 14 pounds, 7 ounces.

A woman, Mrs. Emma L. Puckit, caught the fifth prize winner, pounds, 12 ounces, in Deer lake Wisconsin, while Harold D. Miller took the eighth prize pike, pounds, 9 ounces, from Wildcat lake, Vilas county.
