Oregon, Lodi, Middleton, and Arena Win

BLACK EARTH—Arena, Lodi, Middleton, and Oregon posted victories in the opening round of the fourth annual Black Earth city teams basketball tournament Thursday night and advanced to the semi-finals of the championship flight.

Arena will battle Lodi at 8 p. m. in the semi-final games tonight. Cross Plains meets Black Earth and Sauk City faces Spring Green in consolation flight contests at 7 and 8 p. m.

The Middleton Merchants romped off with a 38-22 decision over Sauk City. Ralph Walker scored eight points and "Gob" Schmale tallied seven in leading a well-rounded offensive. The Oregon Firemen defeated the Spring Green CYO, 36-30, with "Buddy" Martin and Harold Mandt scoring 12 and seven points, respectively. Ted Lins scored 12 points for the losers.

Cambridge Sure of Second Place Tie. MARSHALL—Cambridge high school's basketball team staged a brilliant second half rally to defeat Marshall, 45-43, here Thursday night and clinch at least a tie for second place in the Madison Suburban League. Marshall had taken a 32-17 lead in the first half.

Guard Harry Hanson tossed in the winning basket for Cambridge with about 30 seconds left to play. Milo Frey scored four baskets in pacing Cambridge's 16-point rally in the final period, and he topped the winners in scoring with 15 points; Mike Bergholtz, Marshall forward, took game scoring honors with 18 points. Marshall can tie Cambridge for second place by defeating Oregon tonight. Box score:
