Famous George Bernard Shaw Tale Is Sigma's Film Fare

"Major Barbara" Will Open Wednesday With Wendy Miller And Rex Harrison In The Leading Roles

George Bernard Shaw's story "Major Barbara," starring Wendy Miller and Rex Harrison, commences Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. It's the story of a girl who couldn't be bothered with love, and a man who bothered her till she changed her mind. "North of the Klondike," the co-feature, stars Andy Devine, Lon Chaney, Brod Crawford and Evelyn Ankers.

A gay musical western, "Go West, Young Lady," stars Penny Singleton, Glenn Ford, Ann Miller, Charlie Ruggles and Allen Jenkins at the Quilna theatre. A hectic Hawa-iian hullabaloo, "Honolulu Lu," stars Leo Carillo, Bruce Bennett and Lupe Velez in the co-feature.

Thrilling aerial scenes highlight the James Cagney film at the Ohio, "Captains of the Clouds," with the popular fighting lrishman in the role of daredevil bush pilot of Canada who wants to win the war by himself. Others in the cast are Dennis Morgan, George Tobias, Alan Hale and Brenda Marshall, each contributing a valuable share to the final
