"Birth Of The Blues" Will Open At State On Thursday

Latest Bing Crosby Opus Also Stars Mary Martin; "Buy Me That Town" Will Be Second Film On The Bill

Some mighty sharp orchestrations will emanate from the State theatre screen Thursday as "Birth of the Blues" makes its starting appearance. The picture portrays the origin of "white jazz" and features some prime licks by Brian Donley on a Bach cornet and keen vocal move-ins by Bing Crosby. For female appearance sake, there's Mary

Marines Will Hear "College Of Musical Knowledge"; "Mr. District Attorney" Set To Bare Vicious New Racket

One year ago, Kay Kyser was awarded an honorary serceant's stripes by the United States Marine Corps, during a roadcast from the marine base at San Diego,

Kyser has been A. W. O. L. for a year, but he will report to the U.S. Marine Base on Wednesday with a special program that probably will forestall any threats of punishment.

Kyser will introduce the marines to a couple of pretty girls who have joined the NBC "College of Musical Knowledge" gang since Kyser's first visit to the base. They are Trudy Erwin, rhythm singer, and Dorothy Dunn, specialist in romantic ballads.

When crooks begin to meddle with the fighting forces, "Mr. District Attorney" lets them have Feb. 25, in the trial of "The Case of the Worst Double Cross," NBC-RED, 9:30 p. m. It is for going to gullible families and offering draft deferment or army promoputs the bad men in the spot.
