WHA Broadcasts of Lives of James and Dolly Madison Start Anniversary Observance

Highlights in the lives of James and Dolly Madison will be dramatized in a special broadcast over WIBA and WHA at 4 p. m. today in connection with the city's observance of Pres. Madison's 191st birthday anniversary. The play was written by Romance Koopman, and will be enacted by University of Wisconsin students directed by Gerald Bartell.

It will emphasize the president's belief in civil rights, showing how it has served as a foundation for Pres. Roosevelt's "four freedoms."

Lemon Juice Recipe Checks Rheumatic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from rheumatic, arthritis or neuritis pain, try this simple inexpensive home recipe that thousands are using. Get a package of Ru-Ex Compound, a two-week supply, today. Mix it with a quart of water, add the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy. No trouble at all and pleasant. You need only 3 tablespoonsful two times a day. After within 48 hours—sometimes overnight—splendid results are obtained. If the pains do not quickly leave and if you do not feel better, return the empty package and Ru-Ex will cost you nothing to try as it is sold by your druggist under an absolute money-back guarantee. Ru-Ex Compound is for sale and recommended by drug stores everywhere. —Adv.

Serenader

Maestro Glenn Miller, now heard Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 9 p. m., will broadcast from the West Coast during the making of his new film, "Orchestra Wife."

Boy Returns to Army to 'Be a Good Soldier'

A Madison youth who went AWOL from the army was on his way back to camp Saturday, his attitude changed and his mind set "on being a good soldier," Sheriff Edward Fischer reported.

Melvin A. Grimstad, 20, surrendered to authorities here Friday, spent that night in the county jail, and left Saturday after the sheriff's department had conferred with army officials and obtained permission for him to return. He oversatyed his leave by two days.

BIKES CUT 42 PER CENT

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—Bicycles—no more for junior until he's old enough to ride a man-sized one. War Production board has ordered bicycle manufacturing cut to 42 per cent of last year's output and standardized into two "victory" models, one for men, and the other for women.

Red Cross Roundup

GREY LADIES

Ten new Grey Ladies have completed the official Red Cross 15 hour course of instruction at the Veterans' facility. The new members are Mrs. H. L. Ewbank, Mrs. George Hill, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Mrs. E. R. McIntyre, Mrs. William Werrell, Mrs. Lew J. Blied, Mrs George Holdhusen, Mrs. William E. Walker, Mrs. J. Frank Kessenich, and Mrs. George Thorlo.

The Grey Ladies recently conducted a minstrel show in which the patients of the Veterans' hospital took part. This activity was conducted by Mmes. Grant, Rehfeld and Church.

PRODUCTION

More than 600 pounds of yarn arrived at our work rooms Feb. 27; today the supply is exhausted. Never before has Dane county responded so quickly. In fact, one of the most difficult tasks for the knitting group is to tell its thousands of volunteers that they have no available yarn. However from time to time new shipments will be arriving.

Materials for production of women's skirts arrived Friday. They will be ready for distribution by Mar. 18.

SURGICAL DRESSINGS

Dressings are now being made in the meeting room of the Wisconsin State Employees assn., 448 W. Washington ave. These work rooms are open every day 9 a. m. until 4 p. m.; Monday and Fridays until 9 p. m. Anyone interested is asked to bring a clean cotton dress and a head covering, preferably a large white handkerchief.

Wrappings for dressings during the process of sterilizing are needed. The committee is requesting the donation of worn sheets and towels which are ideal for this use.

NURSING SERVICE

Mrs. Martha Hatch, nursing consultant from the American Red Cross headquarters, addressed representatives of the nursing agencies of the city, hospitals, and defense council groups. Plans were developed for a nurses aid program.

HOME NURSING

Two new classes in home nursing are being organized. One is in the Sherman park school district. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. A. R. Lille, Sherman park, or Mrs. E. S. McCabe, Maple Bluff. The other is in the Mendota district and anyone interested should contact Mrs. James O. Luster, Route 1.

Coleman to Speak at Grace Episcopal

A service of intercession for the United Nations will be held at Grace Episcopal church at 8 p. m. today with the Rev. Michael Coleman, British clergyman, as speaker. The Englishman is vicar of All Hallows by Tower, one of London's oldest churches.

Mexico will enlarge its navy, building some of the boats at a new shipyard.

Inter-America Contest Planned

District Finalists to Compete at UW

Eight district finalists representing six midwest states in the national extempore discussion contest in inter-American affairs will compete in a regional contest at the University of Wisconsin Apr. 14 to select an entrant for the national finals in Washington, D. C., May 14, it vas announced Saturday by the university speech department. The regional winner may receive a trip through the South American republics.

Wisconsin entrants were to compete in a district contest today at Ripon college, and two speakers in the district competition will be selected to represent the Wisconsin district in the regional event here.

The contest, aimed at fostering and improving inter-American affairs, "contributes to hemispheric solidarity," the sponsors declared. District contestants were selected after students in Spanish, public speaking, international, relations, social studies, and other related fields made intensive studies of inter-American problems and participated in local group discussion .

Over 98 per cent of the leaf tobacco shipped from North Sumatra in the first eight months of last year was destined for the United States.
