There's been no wild rush to buy suits while cuffs still are allowed, such as the frenzied buying spree women went on last August when a silk stocking shortage loomed. The stronger sex is taking things in stride, clothing dealers reported, although a few purchased Easter suits a bit earlier, saying they preferred to have trousers with cuffs, Some Are Happy About It

A few welcomed the style change. One man said "cuffs always were a nuisance," and a woman commented, "I hope cuffs never come back in style. It's next to impossible to keep from getling your heel caught in them on a crowded dance floor, and that's ery embarrassing." Disappearance of cuffs will be the first major change in men's clothing styles in more than 15 years, merchants said. "It's time we did have change," one chuckled, "and took a war to bring it about." Starting Monday, no pair of trousers sold in Madison may have cuffs. Tailors in Madison stores are to cut off the excess woot and turn the material in to be reprocessed. It cannot be given and Manufacturing Co. to the customer so he can have his wife fix up cuffs, nor can be

Although other significant changes are due as the nation progresses toward standardized men's and boys' clothing, you won't see much evidence of them until toward fall. Retailers have their spring and summer stock ordered and it will be sold as is, except for cuffs. Clothing manufacturer: have to adhere to new cutting restrictions starting Monday, but merchants won't get the new-style goods until several months

Cutting Quotations Would Ire Farm Bloc

WASHINGTON -(U.P)- Office of Price Administration officials, working on permanent price ceilings for pork, were faced Satur~ day night with the choice of continuing present high quotations or battling the powerful farm bloc in

When the OPA issued its 60-day temporary price ceiling on Mar. 10, both pork prices and hog quotations were at their highest levels in 16 years.

While the OPA has 48 days left in which to draft its permanent agricultural bloc wrote into the bill a proviso for 110 per cent of parity as one of the four bases on which farm prices could be set Farm senators were able to add this amendment despite the opposition of Pres. Roosevelt and administration supporters.

If the OPA were to reduce re-

Sgt. T. A. Grinnell Finishes 22 Year Career as Policeman

At 11 p. m. Saturday T. A. Grinnell, police desk sergeant for 16 years, left his swivel chair in the radio room and wrote "tenseven" to his 22-year career as a policeman.

Grinnell had called "ten-four" -police radio code for "all clear" -to thousands of cruising police cars. But Saturday night was the first time had called ten-seven ... "out of service." On Apr. 5, 1920, Grinnell joined the police department as a rookie who tramped beats in every section of the city. On Apr. 5, 1942, he will retire. Saturday night he started a two-week vacation which will lade into permanent retirement. In his 16 years as sergeant taking complaints, hunting up lost children, directing squad cars, and
