Sound-Picture Of Catholic Mass Is On Screen At Sigma

Inspirational Film Will Begin Run On Wednesday; Comedies Featured At Other Theatres

The divinely inspirational film, "The Eternal Gift," soundpicture, of the Solemn Catholic Mass, will commence Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. Music is provided by members of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, Cathedral Choristers and Georgian Chanters in this film of the joyous Easter Mass. Celebrant of the Mass is Rev. James R. Keane, O. S. M., founder of the Perpetual Novena in honor of Our Sorrowful Mother.

The address is 79 Wistful Vista and the host and hostess are Fibber McGee and Molly, in 'Look Who's Laughing," now at the State theatre. Among the guests are Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Lucille Ball and Gildersleeve. Hit No. 2 is "Glamor Boy," starring Jackie Cooper in a story based on his own life, the plot centering around a child star who tried a comeback when he reached manhood.

A trial that was typical of many in the days when justice was an undefined word in Chicago court rooms, is the trial of "Roxie Hart," the title of the film at the Ouilna theatre. Ginger Rogers appears as the girl on trial, accused of murder, but too pretty to be convicted. Adolphe Menjou shares acting honors in his role of trial attorney.

Fred Astaire and Rita Hayworth are the dancing members of the Lyric film, "You'll Never Get Rich," a musical film built around the training camp where a Broadway star was stationed after he was drafted. Robert Benchley is 90 per cent of the comedy portion. Co-featured is "The Men in Her Life," starring Loretta Young. Bob Hope, Vere Zorina and Victor Moore are the stars of the curient Ohio film, "Louisiana Purchase," screen version in color, of the famous stage production of the same name. Irene Bordoni, Dona Drake and Raymond Walburn also appear in the film, which features the music of Irvng Berlin.

"The Eternal Gift." at the Sigma Wednesday, is divinely inspirational and the first and only sound-motion picture of the Solemn Catholic Mass ever made, with 35 leading members of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, 125 Cathedral Choristers, 50 Gregoman Chanters, and 1.500 "extras."
