

Lloyd Nolan Seen In Title Role Of Detective Picture

Latest In "Michael Shayne" Series Due At Quilna Friday; "Louisiana Purchase" Is On Ohio Screen

Detective Michael Shayne's latest battle against sabotage, spies and smugglers is contained in the Quilna film, "Blue, White and Perfect," starring Lloyd Nolan as the adventurous officer and Mary Beth Hughes in the role of pulchritude provider, Jane Withers has the starring role of the co-feature, "Young America," featuring the typical 4-II club. Showing for the last time Friday is "Roxie Hart," starring Ginger Rogers and Adolphe Menjou.

Included with the musical selections, the glittering dances of beautiful chorines and the dazzle of the entertainment world of "Louisiana Purchase," are the antics of the topflight comedians, Bob Hope and Victor Moore, as they cavort and carry on in hilarious fashion. Dancing chorines are handled by Vera Zorina.

Ralph Byrd and Carol Hughes are the stars of the lyric film, "Desperate Cargo," now showing with the Zane Grey story, "Last of the Duanes."

At the Sigma theatre, "The Eternal Gift," a 10-reel sound movie of the Catholic solemn mass, is now being shown. Rev. J. R. Keane is the celebrant of the mass pictured in the film, presented by the Service fathers.

George Brent and Ilona Massey are the stars of the State film, "International Lady," a story of spies and counter-espionage. In the co-feature, "Among the Living," are such actors as Albert Dekker, Susan Hayward, Harry Carey and Frances Farmer.

A story based on the life of an actual minister held prisoner by the Gestapo is "Pastor Hall," current at the Majestic theatre. Wilfred Lawson and Nova Pilbeam are the stars. Co-featured is "Lost Squadron."

OHIO

A star combination that proved itself so successful with its first appearance, is again due to hit the nation's screens. The lovely blonde Madeleine Carroll and the stalwart blonde Stirling Hayden were so well paired in "Virginia," are coming Saturday to the Ohio theatre in their new co-starring Paramount Technicolor film, "Bahama Passage."

"Bahama Passage," which is based on Nelson Hayes' best-selling novel, "Dildo Cay," tells the story of a girl who comes to the salt-producing island in the West Indies and takes the heart of its owner by storm. Advance reports have it that romantic excitement rides unusually high when, after a series of thrilling adventures, the two are left entirely alone on the island—a modern Adam and Eve in a garden paradise.

In the role of the girl who knows what she wants and how to get it, the blonde star turns in one of her best performances to date. Hayden fulfills the promise of stardom he gave in "Virginia." The women, especially, who were intrigued by his looks and acting in his first picture, will find him a completely fascinating romantic hero.

Supporting the two stars are the renowned stage star Flora Robson, Cecil Kellaway and Leo G. Carroll, and the lovely little brunette starlet Mary Anderson.

QUILNA

As Michael Shayne, the famous fictional wisecracking detective, Lloyd Nolan becomes involved in two of the most fiendish plots ever devised by man—sabotage, and murder! An aircraft factory engaged in defense work; foreign agents using dress buttons to smuggle diamonds out of the country; and private detective Shayne pretending to be a riveter and later to be a southern colonel! Mix them all together and you have the latest of the humorous Michael Shayne films, "Blue, White and Perfect."

The picture is the fourth in this series of comedy-mysteries, and opens Friday night at the Quilna theatre. Lloyd Nolan is again the detective created by Erolt Holliday, and featured with him is luscious blond Mary Beth Hughes.

The fun starts immediately when Lloyd pretends to get a job as a riveter in an aircraft factory so that Mary Beth will believe he has given up his dangerous profession as private detective and marry him. It was just a coincidence that a diamond robbery occurred on his first day at work, but it becomes something more than a mere coincidence when Lloyd "borrows" Mary Beth's money and leaves her to follow a band of German diamond smugglers on a boat bound for Honolulu!

Lloyd pretends to be on a pleasure trip, but what with constant attempts by mysterious passengers to end his life and the murder of his chief suspect, the only pleasure left for Nolan is to discover the identity of the chief of the saboteurs and murderer. This he does in his usual expert fashion, but only after he has straightened himself out in the eyes of the law and those of Mary Beth Hughes.

Featured with Lloyd Nolan and Mary Beth Hughes are Helene Reynolds, George Reeves, Steve Geray, Henry Victor and Curt Bois.

LYRIC

A giant Trans-Caribbean sky clipper with a full load of passengers and a fortune in jewels, disappears in mid-air at the Lyric theatre, and film fans are let in on one of the most exciting air-adventure films ever to come out of Hollywood. The picture is "Desperate Cargo," Ralph Byrd-Carol Hughes co-starrer, which is the current offering.

When the leader of a band of international crooks learn that the plane is carrying a cargo of valuable jewels, he makes plans to steal the entire plane to get them. The gang is smuggled aboard the clipper as passengers, when a stop is made at a mid-Caribbean island. It is not until several hours later when the plane is far at sea, that they overthrow the crew of eight, gaining control of the sky giant and everybody in it.

Among those trapped is Ralph Byrd, the ship's purser, who is unable to give battle to the air pirates for fear of them injuring pretty Julie Duncan, the girl he loves. Byrd has come a long way since he first appeared on the screen as the iron-jawed Dick Tracy in the Republic serial. His performance is head and shoulders above anything he has heretofore done on the screen.

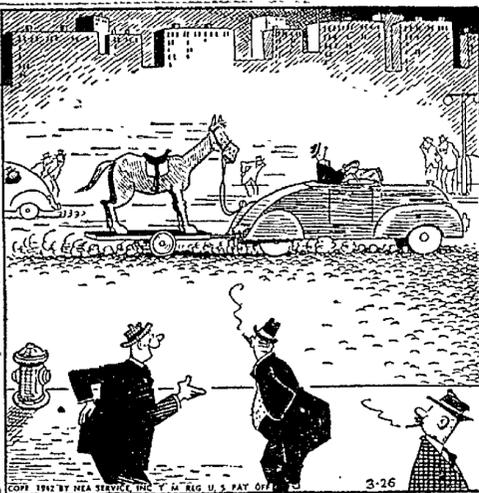

Carol Hughes and Julie Duncan, as a slap-happy, wise-cracking pair of Broadway showgirls stranded in the tropics, provide romance for Byrd and Jack Mulhall, ex-silent star who makes a comeback in the film, as well as plenty of laughs for fans.

Alger School News

The high school assembly Friday was given by Bluffton college students. The program consisted of vocal solos, a reading, and a playlet or skit entitled, "Why I Am a Bachelor."

The seniors held their second class party Friday. The juniors and all teachers were guests. The girls wore print dresses and the boys overalls.

Several different contest dances were held with the winners being Iris Newland, Doris Ellis, Max Cotterman, Helen Hicks and Donald Clark.

Supt. B. W. Cotterman attended the final principals' meeting of the year at Cridersville on Tuesday evening. Those present discussed the feasibility of continuing the organization next year and decided that it was so profitable that it should be continued. The first meeting of next year is to be at Lima Central on the second Tuesday in October. The district comprises: Harlin, Hancock, Allen, Mercer, Auglaize, Van Wert, and Putnam.

The March meeting of the Alger chapter of the Future Farmers of America was held at the school building Thursday evening. The following ninth grade boys received the Green Hand degree and are now full fledged F. F. A. members: Norman Hall, Joe Johnston, Ross Keiser, Robert Miller, Richard Moore, Leo Shaw, Donald Spencer, Ronald Spencer, George Sutherland, Robert Williams, and Lewis Kaiser.

After some discussion a motion was passed that two delegates be sent to the state leadership confer-

Ink Spots Will Be Heard On Crosby Hour Thursday Night

Sepia Singers Expected To Offer New Samples Of Sizzling Harmony; Robert Preston Also Set For Guest Appearance

The Ink Spots, sepia singers of a style low-down and hot, will come back to the Crosby Music Hall, at 9 p. m. Thursday on WJAF with new samples of the sizzling rhythm and harmony. The swing and boogie-woogie specialists stopped the show on their appearance last fall.

Bing Crosby will be host to an Army representative and to Robert Preston, husky and handsome screen actor who currently is drawing acclaim in "Reap The Wild Wind." The Crosby regulars—Mary Martin, Victor Borge, John Scott Trotter and the Music Hall Maids and Hal—will be on hand with new musical and comedy features.

The Great Gildersleeve, pompous, lovable and laughable, will guest on the Rudy Vallee stanzas Thursday, 10 p. m. via WJAF. In a skit featuring Comare Romero as a night-club proprietor, Rudy Vallee as the kick orchestra leader, Joan Davis as his country sweetheart and John Barrymore as the farmer girl's papa, Gildy will be featured as a night club patron.

Gail Laughton, who can make the harp give out with plenty of "boogie woogie" when the occasion warrants, will be spot-lighted on the Al Pearce show Thursday at 7:30 p. m. over WJAF when he plays "St. Louis Blues."

The fated calf, prepared for Henry Aldrich's homecoming, turns out to be a "turkey" when the boy doesn't stay in the house
