"What's Cookin'", a program of ods and nutrition, presented by rginia Graham, will make its but over Station WIBA, Mony at 9:15 a. m.

Miss Graham, who is women's rector of Station WIBA, is condicing her new series in connecting her new series in Madison.

The new program is the result of the many requests received for a series dealing only in foods.

Miss Graham's subjects will include tasty ways of serving economy cuts of meat, honey as a substitute when sugar rationing begins, meatless meals, balanced meals for health defense, and nutritional facts about foods.

She will also devote a part of each broadcast to answering questions sent in by listeners.

Medal 'Pleases' Gen. MacArthur

Award Honors Men, Commander Says

WASHINGTON -(U.P)- Gen. Douglas MacArthur, expressing thanks for the medal of honor awarded to him, said today he felt that it was more in recognition of the courage of the "gallant army" which he commanded in the Philippines than for his own services.

MacArthur's expression contained in a message to Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff. The message was made public in a long war department communique, which also containa message from President Manuel Quezon to the Filipino people, expressing confidence in ultimate deliverance.

Quezon's message, expressing belief that reinforcements "in in-creasing quantities" will reach the Philippines in the near future, was made in a farewell message to the Philippine people before he went to Australia. It had been extensively reported in dispatches from Frank Hewlett, United Press staff correspondent with the American army in the Philip-
