Special Easter Music To Be Featured On Broadcast

Jean Tennyson, Jan Peerce And Robert Weede Will Be Starred On Program Via WABC At 10:15 P. M. Wednesday

"Great Moments In Music;" deviating from its customary program of excerpts from grand opera, will present a special program of selected Easter music over the WABC network at 10:15 p. m. Wednesday. Soprano Jean Tennyson, Jan Peerce, tenor, and Robert Weede, baritone, will be starred with an augmented chorus and the orchestra, which will be directed by George Sebastian.

Among the featured selections; is one never before performed by a symphony orchestra. It is "Allelulia," a seventh-century Easter hymn which so impressed Miss Tennyson with its beauty that she suggested that it should be arranged for solo and full orchestra presentation.

Acting on her suggestion. Tibor Moments in Music" orchestra, formerly with the Philadelphia orchestra, made a study of the traditional composition and completed an arrangement in time for the Pre-Easter program. Robert Weede will be soloist with full orchestra accompaniment.

Ransom Sherman receives what he believes to be a threatening note to the welfare of Crestfallen Corners on the Ransom Sherman program at 9:30 p. m. WABC. Gathering Crestfallen's citizens around him, Sherman heads an anti-crime movement to tion. lecture the citizens on crime. Jenkins' orchestra is
