

Four Bluejackets Will Be Featured On Friday Night

Great Lakes Naval Training Station Men Scheduled For Variety Show Via WJZ At 8:30 P. M.

A quartet of bluejackets from the Great Lakes Naval Training station, equally at home on the high "C's," will be heard as featured artists during the "Meet Your Navy" show Friday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

A banjo medley by Lieut. Com. Eddie Peabody; baritone solo by 17-year-old apprentice seaman Kalman Toth, Jr.; a harmonica—"rhythm bones" duet by recruits Ernest Ball and Robert Butrick, and the 200-voiced choir led by Chaplain Ijalmar Hansen, also will be heard.

Frank Munn offers four popular three-quarter-time items on "Waltz Time" Friday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. The tenor is heard in "Tangeline," "How Do I Know It's Real?" "When the Roses Bloom Again" and Stephen Foster's "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming."

The musical hillbilly, Whitey (Duke of Paducah) Fox, will tell all about Easter fashions during "Plantation Party," Friday, at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF. According to the Duke: "Spring is a time we buy a lot of clothes we can't afford just to show off and spite a lot of people we don't like, who don't care."

"The A.E.F. in Australia" will be the subject of the "March of Time" dramatization on Friday, over WJZ at 9:30 p. m. Based on eye-witness reports of Time Correspondent Robert Sherrod, the program will depict the experiences of the Yanks in their long and perilous voyage on the high seas, their meeting with the Aussies, the arrival of General Douglas MacArthur, and the bombing of Port Darwin.

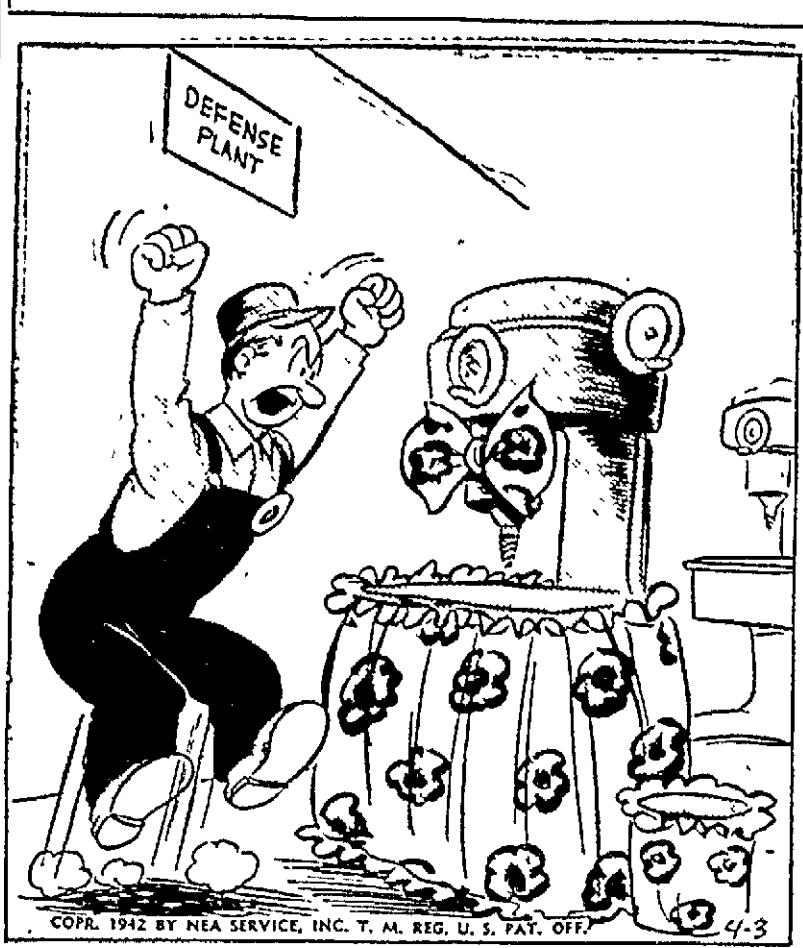

A special Good Friday address by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen has been added to the roster of WEAF's Easter programs. Speaking on "The Crucifixion," Msgr. Sheen will be heard at 10:30 p. m. in a broadcast arranged by the National Council of Catholic Men, producers of the "Catholic Hour" and also featuring the famed Paulist Choir.

Good Friday finds the "Ontario Show" changing its mood in keeping with that day's prayer, Col. Lemuel Q. Sloopmaster will take the air at 7 p. m. on WJZ, with the ebullient zany he usually portrays, but under his real name, F. Chase Taylor, and with Madeleine Carroll, beautiful star of radio, stage and screen, be heard.

Thoughts During Lent

Good Friday, April 3. "... there they crucified Him." Read Luke 23:26-39.

This Good Friday morning when there is against all our skylines two crosses: the cross of sacrificial love upon which Jesus Christ died for our redemption, and the cross of enmity upon which humanity is crucifying itself, listen to the Imitation of Christ.

"Go where thou wilt, seek whatsoever thou wilt, thou shalt not find a higher way above nor a safer way below than the way of the Holy Cross." "... which way thou turnest... thou shalt find the cross, and everywhere of necessity thou must hold fast patience, if thou wilt have inward peace." "If thou bear the cross cheerfully, it will bear thee." "If thou cast away one cross, without doubt thou shalt find another and that perhaps a more heavy one."

"Set thyself, therefore, like a good and faithful servant of Christ, to bear manfully the cross of thy Lord, Who out of love was crucified for thee." Prayer: "Lord as to Thy dear cross we see, And plead to be forgiven So let Thy life our pattern be And form our souls for heav'n."
