Two Dynamic Action Films Current At State Theatre

Humphrey Bogart Is Starred In "All Thru The Night;" "Steel Against The Sky" Is Second Hit On Double Bill

"All Thru the Night," starring Humphrey Bogart and now at the State theatre, is a story of an ex-ganster who goes after the Gestapo, using just about the same tactics he used against rival mobs in prohibition days. Others appearing in the film are Kaaren Verne, Conrad Veidt and Peter Lorre. The co-feature is "Steel Against the Sky," starring Alexis Smith, Lloyd Nolan and Craig Stevens.

John Payne, Maureen O'Hara and Randolph Scott have the leading roles of he new Quilna film, "To the Shores of Tripoli," a story of the U.S. Marine Corps. Others in the cast of the film dedicated to America's outstanding band of fighting men are Nancy Kelly, William Tracy, Maxie Rosenbloom, Henry Morgan, Edmund MacDonald, Russell Hicks and Minor Watson.

The Ohio film, "Ball of Fire," starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck, offers the story of what happens when you mix eight learned professors and one entertainer who knows more about life than any of them. Others in the film are Allen Jenkins, Dana Andrews, Richard Haydn, Henry Travers and Oscar Homolka.

"A Yank in the R. A. F." starring Tyrone Power and Betty Grable, is the current offering at the Lyric theatre. In this picture of Britain's gallant fighters of the sky are such stars as John Sutton. Reginald Gardiner and Gladys Rooney plot to "glamorize" the Cooper assisting the romantic duo girl, surprising results occur. heading the cast. Virginia Vale. Robert Kent and Barney Oldfield appear in the second attraction, "Blonde Comet."
