Boris Karloff Will Wind Up "Inner Sanctum" Series

Spine-Tingler Scheduled Sunday Evening; Edward Everett Horton Set For Appearance With Charlie McCarthy

Winding up his current series of guest appearances Boris Karloff, kingpin of the horror men, will be heard in "A Study for Murder" during the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" offering Sunday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Cast as a psychiatrist with a statistical bent, Karloff sets about finding out why roughly 80 per cent of the greatest murders are committed by guys who have never jumped a lease or received a parking ticket. Absorbed in his research, Karloff becomes intrigued by the unusual motives for most of the crimes. The urge to kill grips him, too, and soon heads and bodies are bouncing all over the place.

Edward Everett Horton, veteran actor of the stage and screen, will drop in to parlay with Charlie McCarthy on the show Sunday at 8 p. m. over WEA-F.

The sweeping RAF raids on Western Europe is the "Story Behind the Headlines." Cesar Sachinger has selected for his Sunday night discussion at 11:15 p. m. over WEA-F. Under the auspices of the American Historical-Association, Sachinger's weekly NBC broadcasts present the outstanding news story of the week in the light of historical analysis.

Gene Autry, singing cowboy star of radio, rodeo and the screen, brings his rodeo troupe to the "Show of Yesterday and Today" when it airs on Sunday at 2:30 p. m. over WJZ. Autry and his cowboys will be playing an engagement at the Uline Arena. Western music appropriate to the occasion will be played by Blue Baron and his "Music of Yesterday and Today," that portion of the program originating from Passaic, N. J., from where the show as a whole will emanate, under the direction of Alton Alexander. This broadcast also will feature a return engagement of Nick Democracy, Greek dialect comedian introduced on the April 26 program. Nick leans to ride a horse in Sunday's comedy feature.

Hall Peary, better known as "The Arctic Explorer," started his radio career in San Francisco in 1925, when crystal set duffers heard him as the "Spanish Serenader."

On Sunday Peary returns to San Francisco as a star to join the parade of "home-towners" dedicating the new NBC Radio City there. On that date, "The Great Gildersleeve" program will originate in the "City by the Golden Gate," at 6:30 p. m. on WEA-F.

In addition to Zenovia Pukey, 17-year-old pianist, Boris Pukey,

LANDECK GIRL BECOMES DELPHOS MAN'S BRIDE

(Lima News Bureau)

DELPHOS, May 2—Alfred Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller of Landeck and Miss Jean Huber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Huber of south of Delphos, were united in marriage Saturday morning in St. John's church by Rev. Virgil Redlinger. Miss Mary Miller, Mrs. Paul Hoiz and Marvin Altemburger of Lima were attendants.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of City Councilman and Ward Dillon, cousins of the bride, W. Fifth-st. Dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, followed by a reception during the afternoon. The festivities were continued at night with a dance in Eagles hall. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will reside on a farm south of here.

Zenovia's 15-year-old brother, will be featured as headliner during the "Musical Steubenville" program, Sunday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Norway where last week the Nazis, preaching Nordic brotherhood, shot 10 Norwegian patriots, will be the scene for the adventure drama, "Vikings Never Die," another in the current "Alias John Freedom" programs to be heard Sunday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

OPERATOR QUILTS

Sam Morton of American-Op, elevator operator at the Allen-court house for more than two years, has resigned effective Saturday. He has accepted a post at the Lima Locomotive Works, Inc., he told the county commissioners. An appointment will be made in the near future to fill the vacancy, probably early next week, commissioners said.
