this tale of working the packets. Claire Dodd and John Litel complete the cast.

With the latest cry in thrills projected directly for the benefit of Lima audiences, "Jungle Book" carries on with an excellent screen record at the Ohio theatre. This Rudyard Kipling opus is in marvelous technicolor and is executed with all the terrific drive of the masterful Alexander Korda. In the cast is that native "natural," Sabu.

Judy Canova does some screamingly silly acting in "Sleepy Time Gal," now currently showing at the Quilna theatre. Besides this hill-billy hot-howler the cast contains Tom Brown and Ruth Terry. Suspense and mystery are mixed up in "The Affairs of Jimmy Valentine" which is the go-along attraction.

For the last times Wednesday at the State theatre "Women of the Year' 'is viewable. Kay Hepburn as the sooo smart career and newspaper woman who wants to eat her cake and have it. too, does a convincing job in this film. Spencer Tracy plays the role of the sports writer who passes her on the back stretch. Also on the fade-out bill is William Gargan in "Sealed Lips."

"Cadet Girl," the Lyric theatre's ace customer getter for the nonce, is described as "a merry-go-round of gaiety, melody and romance." Carole Landis and George Montgomery are co-starred. A timely bit of thrill-fare, "Man at Large" likewise is offered.
