Soloist And Yodeling Duo

Set For Barn Dance Show

Smiling Ed McConnell And Dezurik Sisters Will Be Heard As Program Takes To Air From Home Hayload

"The National Barn Dance" gang will be at home in the old hayload, Saturday but comic Pat Buttram will be in place of Joe Kelly, the regular A. C., who is on vacation. Guests expected are Smiling Ed McConnell, the singing philosopher, and the Dezurik Sisters, yodeling duo. Lieut. Comdr. Eddie Peabody will offer "Down Home Rag" and "Ten For Two" as banjo highlights of the broadcast at 9 p. m. over WEAF. Jane Kaye is to sing "I Remember You," Joe Parsons will do "Wagon Wheels," and Bob Ballantine's harmonica will be heard in "Zampa Overture."

The Hoosier Hot Shots and the Dining Sisters are to harmonize on "High Cost of Lovin'" and "I Dood It," respectively. "America Preferred" moves to California for the May 23 program over WJR at 10:15 p. m. when Jan Kiepara, Polish tenor, will be guest star. His numbers include

"When a modern Shylock puts the squeeze on his delinquent debtors, Elery Queen finds himself involved in "The Adventure of the Three I O U's," Saturday over WEAF, at 7:30 p. m. Alice Marble, former national tennis champion, will be one of two guest armchair detectives, who attempt to add up clues on their own and arrive at the proper total before the master sleuth.

An all-Russian program will be presented by Izler Solomon, distinguished young American conductor, when he makes the last of three guest appearances with the Summer Symphony on Saturday, over WJZ, from 9 to 9:45 p. m. The program will open with the overture to Glinka's "Russian and Luchinsky's "The Russian opera, based on a fairy tale by the great Russian poet Pushkin. The second selection will be Aronsky's "Variations on a Theme by Tschaiowsky."

For the final work, Solomon has chosen the seldom played Symphony No. 4, by Tikhon Khrennikoff, the 23-year-old contemporary Russian composer now living in Moscow.
