

Betty Grable Starring In Film Opening Soon At Lyric

Red Skelton Heads Program At Ohio; Double Feature Being Shown At Quilna

One of the surprise films of the year for sheer suspense and mystery is "Hot Spot," which stars Victor Mature, Betty Grable and Carole Landis and moves into the Lyric theatre on Tuesday. The film concerns a play boy who tries to make a glamor girl out of a waitress, becomes involved in murder and is forced to elude police while attempting to find the killer. Also showing will be "Ellery Queen and the Murder Ring," starring Ralph Bellamy and Margaret Lindsay.

Red Skelton and Eleanor Powell, two of the screen's outstanding personalities, play opposite each other in the new film at the Ohio theatre, "Ship Ahoy." Also appearing in the picture of saboteurs and things are Bert Lahr, Virginia O'Brien, and Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra.

Roddy McDowell has the starring role of "On the Sunny Side," now at the Quilna theatre, in which he appears as a British child sent to America for the duration. "The Night Before the Divorce" is the title of the second film offered, with Lynn Bari, Mary Beth Hughes and Joseph Allen, Jr., in the most prominent roles.

"The Tutties of Tahiti," latest of the films offering Charles Laughton a chance to work with his shoes off, is now at the Sigma theatre. Laughton appears as the head of an irresponsible family of part-Tahitians who fall into a financial whirlpool. Co-featured is "Fingers at the Window," starring Lynn Day and Lew Ayres.

Jack Benny and the late Carole Lombard are the stars of the current State attraction, "To Be or Not To Be," in which a troupe of Polish actors escape from the pursuing Nazi brutes who would render persecution. Also on the bill is "Obliging Young Lady," starring Joan Carroll.

Quilna

It was a big scrap. Fists were flying, heels flaying the air and mud splashing all over. Roddy McDowell was getting worsted by his two cinematic enemies, Stanley "Stash" Clements and Freddie Walburn.

The fight was a scene from the Quilna film "On the Sunny Side," starring young Roddy McDowell but when kids start mixing, they're apt to put a good bit of realism into it.

Roddy's mother and his father, Thomas McDowell, British Merchant Navy officer who was having a few days leave while his ship was in port, were onlookers at this furious bit of action. When Roddy came out of the scene, Mrs. McDowell was a little excited. The other boys were bigger and she was starting to exude sympathy when her husband stepped in.

Turning to the young Roddy, he said, "Here, son, you're going to have boxing lessons as soon as this picture is finished."

SPECIAL RITES ARE HELD IN OTTAWA CHURCH

(Lima News Bureau) LEIPSIC, May 25—Special services were held in the Methodist church here Sunday to mark the reopening of the newly-decorated and remodeled church.

W. E. Edwards taught the Men's Bible class during the Sunday school hour which was attended by nearly 200. During the morning worship service, Dr. F. Earl Roe, superintendent of the Defiance district of the church, delivered the sermon. There were special musical selections during the service.

At noon the congregation and friends held a basket dinner at the church. An informal program was held in the afternoon with several former pastors taking part. During the program the Putnam-co Methodist Men's chorus sang several selections.
