Rita Hayworth Heartbreaker In "My Gal Sal" Due At Quilna

Betty Grable Is In Cast Of Lyric Feature While Powell And Skelton Hold Deck In "Ship Ahoy" At Ohio

Singing, dancing, romancing red-headed Rita Hayworth is the heartbreaker of "My Gal Sal," scheduled to commence with a review showing Wednesday at the Quilna theatre. Victor Mature plays the role of a song writer, while others who appear in the cast include John Sutton, Carole Landis, James Gleason, Phil Silvers and Walter Catlett, Showing for the last times Wednesday are "The Night Before the Divorce" and "On the Sunny Side."

The Mature-Landis combination also appears in the Lyric film, "Hot Spot," with Betty Grable as one-third of the starring squad. This concerns the efforts of a playboy to make a waitress into a glamor girl, then proceeds to fall in love with her sister. Laird Creger, Alan Mowbray and Allyn Joslyn have important roles in the picture. Also showing is "Ellery Queen and the Murder

Eleanor Powell and Red Skelten form the major attraction at the Ohio theatre where "Ship Ahoy" is the current feature. Bert Lahr, Virginia O'Brien, and Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra are also in the picture.
