

Colorful Mystery Drama Heading Program At State

Light Comedy Also Offered; Quilna Stars Rita Hayworth; Autry Billed Again At Lyric

"The Mystery of Marie Roget," a colorful version of Edgar Allan Poe's detective story classic, commences Wednesday at the Sigma theatre with a cast including Patricia Knowles, Maria Montez, Maria Ouspenskaya, John Littel and Edward Norris. A light comedy of young love is the co-feature, "Almost Married," starring Jane Frazee and Robert Paige. Showing for the last times Tuesday are "The Spoilers," starring Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott and John Wayne, and "Sunday Punch."

With Gene Autry taking time out from his western adventures to sing "Any Bonds Today," the Lyric offers his latest film, "Home in Wyoming," with Smiley Burnette and Fay McKenzie. An assortment of juvenile toughs, the East Side kids appear in "Mr. Wise Guy," the second feature. The Ohio theatre offers the picture-tization of Ellen Glasgow's novel, "In This Our Life," which brings to the screen the shocking story of a woman who would cheat, steal and even murder to gain her own ends. Bette Davis is in the leading role with Olivia deHavilland, Dennis Morgan and George Brent. Others in the cast include Charles Coburn, Frank Craven, Billie Burke and Hattie McDaniel. Also on the screen is a United States Army Air Force film, "Winning Your Wings," starring James Stewart.

"My Gal Sal," the current Quilna film, offers the story of Paul Dresser, famous composer of the tune by that name and others including "On the Banks of the Wabash" and "Mr. Volunteer." The role of the composer is portrayed by Victor Mature, while Rita Hayworth is the inspiration for his music. Also in starring roles are John Sutton and Carole Landis.

Hailed as the most elaborate as well as the funniest of the Abbott and Costello starring comedies is the pair's latest venture, "Ride 'Em Cowboy," which is now showing at the State theatre. In addition to the comedians the cast includes Dick Foran, Anne Gwynne, Johnny Mack Brown, Samuel S. Hinds and the Merry Maes. Also showing is "The Vanishing Virginian," starring Frank Morgan and Kathryn Grayson.

Betty Grabbe and Tyrone Power have the leading roles of the current Drive In theatre attraction, "A Yank in the R.A.F." The film commencing Wednesday will be "Our Wife."

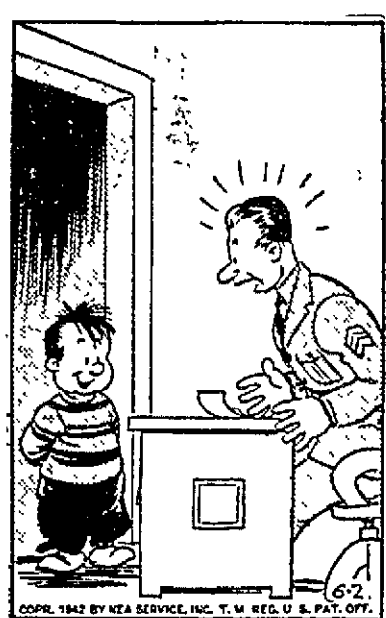

SIGMA
"The Mystery of Marie Roget," based on the famous Edgar Allan Poe story, and with Maria Montez and Patricia Knowles heading the cast, will open at the Sigma theatre beginning Wednesday.

Supporting the leading players are Maria Ouspenskaya, John Littel, Edward Norris, Lloyd Corrigan and others.

Miss Sutton plays the title role of a lovely Parisian musical comedy star, while Knowles portrays Dr. Paul Dupin, first of the great medical detectives of fiction and one of Poe's most fascinating characters.

The screen play is said to have captured the intriguing elements of Poe's masterpiece.

Two song numbers, "Doing the Oo La La" and "Maman Dites Moi" are presented by Miss Montez.

Rollicking comedy and songs you'll want to whistle will be the screen fare for patrons when the gay timefilm, "Almost Married," the co-feature, begins. Jane Frazee and Robert Paige are co-stars. The supporting cast includes Eugene Pallette, Charles Coleman and Elizabeth Patterson. The picture story relates a small-town singer's efforts to make good in the big town and the mad mix-up that involves her in a marriage masquerade with a wealthy, curio-collecting bachelor.

QUILNA
To paraphrase Shakespeare, the song writer's constant cry is "My kingdom for an inspiration!" It's a tough game, this tune-smithing business, and no one knows that better than the denizens of Tin Pan Alley who have been battling "Jane-Moon" songs for a good many years.

One exception to the rule was a composer whose tunes are still engrained in the hearts of many Americans, even though he died as far back as 1911. He was Paul Dresser.

Paul Dresser was a member of a talented family, his brother being the noted American novelist, Theodore Dreiser, whose "An American Tragedy" is considered one of the great novels of our time. Dresser's forte was music, and it is a tribute to his ability and work that Hollywood is releasing a Technicolor picture based on his life called "My Gal Sal," the current showing of which is taking place at the Quilna theatre.

Playing the role of Paul Dresser in the film is Victor Mature who was deemed a "natural" for the part, and the role of the girl who inspires Dresser to greater heights is played by lovely Rita Hayworth.

Dresser's career is portrayed in "My Gal Sal," and is absolutely authentic.

LYRIC
"Home in Wyoming," the latest in Gene Autry's series of musical action dramas is now at the Lyric theatre.

Smiley Burnette has his customary comedy role in the new film, with a talented youngster, Joe Strauch, Jr., portraying Smiley's kid brother, a half-pint edition known as Tadpole.

Fay McKenzie has the feminine lead in the story, which has to do with Gene's adventures setting a near-defunct rodeo on its feet,

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Dunkirk, Ohio, June 1, 1942. Editor Lima News, Lima, Ohio.

Dear Sir: In our Memorial Day service at Dunkirk, Saturday, May 30, we had on our program as master of ceremonies, A. C. "Pete" Hoover, past commander of Edward J. Vessey post 1275, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. Lima, Ohio. This was the seventh consecutive year that a member or members of this great patriotic organization have so kindly assisted us in our Memorial Day services. On behalf of the citizens of Dunkirk, I wish to thank Edward J. Vessey post 1275, V. F. W. and A. C. "Pete" Hoover for their assistance throughout the years.

Respectfully yours, JAMES SHUFF.

Lima, O., May 30th, 1942.

Voice of the People, Mr. William Hagen, Editor.

And as the fable goes the camel got his head in the tent and eventually he had the tent all to himself.

I might write this under the caption "When is an ordinance not an ordinance?" I refer to the paper bailing concern trying to locate by the old cemetery on Pennsylvania in disregard of council's refusal. I informed the city officers of what had taken place and what a nuisance it was (40 years ago), when a similar paper bailing concern operated there in the same spot. And today as we reverently bowed our head at the speaker's mound and listened to the invocation and benediction by the Rev. Leedy and Rev. C. N. Baker and the oration of Gene Lippincott who told of the early history of the city and pointed out the graves of many of them, who had made this great city possible, we could not help but think that there should be some place else for this concern to locate. With streamers of paper already blowing from trees and hales bursted, and fillers around what a mess that will be soon.

I read in the papers that they have a paper shortage, and I know personally that the St. Marys with a few murders thrown in to make the proceedings exciting, and in making their getaway force an entirely innocent young man, brother of one of the East Side Kids, to drive them from the scene in his car. While the murderers escape, their unwitting accomplice, is arrested, convicted and sentenced to be hanged. This situation brings the Kids to the rescue of the wrongly accused man, and they become the center of an exciting series of events which culminate in an action-filled climax.

paper mill is looking for paper and still the owners prate of a priority and help from the government to assist them (I refer to an article of recent date in The Lima News when their attorney addressed council in behalf of this movement). If this is a patriotic project why not get this paper to the mills immediately? The city ordinance says (I am informed) that when a junk yard moves it shall have the consent of council, and council has definitely turned this down.

So again I ask the mayor and the city fathers to enforce this act.

DIETS TO JOIN ARMY
CINCINNATI, June 2—(AP)—A special diet prepared by a nutrition expert got Eugene W. McCready, University of Cincinnati Symphonist from Salem, O., into the Army Air Corps. McCready was rejected two weeks ago because he was six pounds shy of the required weight. Mrs. Emily Jones of the university's school of nursing took care of that.

Fibber McGee Stages Hunt To Locate Missing Dennis

Chester Morris Will Assist Milton Berle In Series Wind-Up; "Spring Song" To Be Played As Conga

Where is Uncle Dennis? That is the mystery confronting Fibber McGee and Molly during their broadcast Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF.

Fibber has scoured all available gutters. Mrs. Uppington's dog, Fifi, is hot on the trail if a little confused as to whose trail. But there is certainly no Uncle Dennis to be found.

And so it is that mystery enters Wistful Vista for the first time. Even Fibber, who seldom has had a kind word for the often-discussed but never heard character, is worried.

Film actor Chester Morris will help comedian Milton Berle wind up the current series of Three Ring Time broadcasts Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Morris, who is an amateur magician of prowess, may be counted upon to show Milton Berle and the rest of the Three Ring Time gang how to pull rabbits out of a hat and other feats of prestidigitation.

Shirley Ross, announcer Wendell Niles and bandleader Bob Crosby, Berle's ebullient colleagues, will be in there pitching in the interests of hilarity.

If the immortal Mendelssohn starts turning in his grave in the very near future, it won't be done to his lovely "Spring Song," Mendelssohn, let it be recorded,

COUPLE MARKS HALF CENTURY OF MARRIAGE
KALIDA, June 2—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Unverferth of Kalida celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at the farm home of the family, two miles southeast of here.

A church service was held at 7 a. m. in St. Michael Catholic church followed by a dinner for children and immediate relatives at the farm. Then, at 4 p. m. open house was held for friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Unverferth were married May 31, 1892, in St. John church at Glandorf. They lived there for 10 years and then moved to Kalida where they lived four years before moving onto a farm where they lived for the last 36 years. Now they reside in Kalida but Unverferth goes to the farm daily to assist with the duties.

They have eight children: Lawrence, Mrs. Leona Hamilton, Leo, Arthur, Mrs. Sarah Esham, Olga, Mrs. Frances Krouse and Alfred Unverferth, all of whom live near here. There are 35 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

PRODUCTION OF CUTLERY AND KNIVES ENDED
WASHINGTON, June 2—(UP)—The War Production Board today restricted the production of knives, scissors and other cutlery and ordered a complete ban on some items after June 30.

The June 30 order will apply to such "unnecessary" cutlery as domestic carving sets, penknives, pocket knives and manicure implements, unless they can be made of gold and silver instead of steel.

Makers of industrial food processing machinery such as knives, forks, saws and cleavers may, for three months beginning today, use the same amount of iron and steel as they did in an average quarter of the 12-months period ending June 30, 1941.

Cutlery used in homes, butcher shops, hotels and other commercial establishments for preparing foods will be allotted a maximum of 60 per cent of this average.

Manufacturers of cutlery used in serving or eating food and ordinary cutting scissors will be restricted to 35 per cent of the metal used last year.

The restrictions do not apply to sterling silver flatware.

VITAMIN Niacin (or PP factor of the vitamin B complex)
It's an unfortunate name for what might be called the "smooth skin" or "facial" vitamin. It is no relative of nicotine, nor any more acid than many foods. It is very essential. Lack of it causes a rough, lathery skin, mouth and gum inflammations, headache, depression, insomnia, loss of weight and strength.
VITAMIN NIACIN (a vitamin of the Vitamin B Complex) is but one of the 8 vitamins and minerals now ADDED EXTRA in Renz Gold Bell Bread. Every pound of this scientifically developed new loaf contains 4 mg. of NIACIN.

It doesn't cost a penny more to give your family this new improved bread that's richer in 8 vitamins and minerals.
It's a dependable low cost way to give yourself—your husband and your children more of these valuable vitamins and minerals... at NO ADDED COST.

The transportation needs of America-at-war have made it necessary to change Greyhound schedules beginning tomorrow. This new service has been arranged in full cooperation with the Office of Defense Transportation.

Today the important thing is to make every bus work full time—keeping vital traffic on the move. To achieve this purpose, Greyhound is introducing many changes—diverting buses to more essential routes—reducing driving speeds—eliminating Expresses and Limiteds and many "second sections"—unifying service with other bus companies in some cases—conserving tires and vital materials in every way.

Be sure to ask about the new schedules before you take a trip. We hope you will not be inconvenienced, crowded or delayed. But if you are, please be lenient—the war effort comes first with Greyhound as it does with you.
