HIGHWAY ENGINEER LEAVES

CAPT, N. H. TRUAX

Appointment of Rolland E. Teegarden, of Greenville, as engineer in charge of Division seven of the Ohio department of highways with headquarters at Sidney, effective Tuesday, June 16, was announced Saturday. Teegarden will succeed Capt. N. H. Truax "for the duration," who has been called to duty with the armed forces, and assigned to a post on the army engineering staff in Washington, D. C. Teegarden has been with the state highway department for the past five years. Since 1939, he has served in Division seven as project and field engineer and as assistant to the maintenance engineer. The division includes Auglaize-co.
