Stellar Cast Will Be Seen In New Attraction At Lyric

"How Green Was My Valley" Has Walter Pidgeon, Donald Crisp, Maureen O'Hara, Anna Lee And Roddy McDowell In Leads

"How Green Was My Valley," the brave story of a Welsh family never conquered-not by armed men, hunger or hate, nor by the turbulent years that stole the greenness from their valley, will commence Tuesday at the Lyric theatre. The unequaled east of stars include Walter Pidgeon, Donald Crisp, Maureen O'Hara, Anna Lee and Roddy McDowell. Also showing will be "Sweetheart of the Campus", starring

Ruby Keeler, Harriett Hilliard and Ozzie Nelson. Showing for the last times Monday will be "Mystery Ship" and "Rolling Down the Great Divide."

"Juke Girl," starring Ann Sheridan and Ronald Reagan at the Ohio theatre tells the dramatic story of a/group of hard-bitten fruit packers in a small Florida town. Miss Sheridan plays the role of a hostess in the local "juke joint," a girl to whom singing and dancing means pretty nearly everything. Richard Whorf, Gene Lockhart, Alan Hale and George Tobias have prominent roles.

One man who doesn't goosestep for the Nazis is the character "The Wife Takes A Flyer," as portrayed by Franchot Tone. This character, an RAF flier, lands in occupied territory, grabs the loveliest occupant, Joan Bennett, and kicks his heels at the nasty Nazi, Allyn Joslyn. Co-featured is "Tramp, Tramp,

"Saboteur" is the title of the film at the Sigma theatre which stars Priscilla Lane and Robert Cummings. The picture is directed by Alfred Hitchcock, who has won for himself quite a reputation as master of suspense. In this film he demonstrates his ability. Co-featured is "Scattergood Rides High."
